

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	iii
List of Contributors	v
CONTEXTUALISING THE DEBATE
Introduction
Edward Herring & Kathryn Lomas	1
Where have all the men gone? Sex, Gender and Women's Studies
Ruth D. Whitehouse	7
GENDER IDENTITIES IN PRE-ROMAN ITALY: BEYOND THE ETRUSCANS
Gender identities and cultural identities in the pre-Roman Veneto
Kathryn Lomas	13
Where are they hiding? The invisibility of the native women of Puglia in the fourth century BC
Edward Herring	27
Warriors and weavers: sex and gender in Daunian stelae
Camilla Norman	37
GENDER IDENTITIES IN PRE-ROMAN ITALY: ETRURIA AND CENTRAL ITALY
Expressions of gender through dress in Latial Iron Age mortuary contexts: the case of Osteria dell'Osa
Lisa Cogle	55
Textile tools and specialisation in Early Iron Age female burials
Margarita Gleba	69
United in death: the changing image of Etruscan couples
Marjatta Nielsen	79
Isn't s/he lovely? An investigation of androgyny in Etruscan art
Bridget Sandhoff	97
Gender benders
Larissa Bonfante	109
GENDER IN ROMAN ITALY
Burning boats and building bridges: women and cult in Roman colonisation
Fay Glinister	117
Women and the Romanisation of Etruria
Vedia Izzet	127
Ethnicity and the costume of the Roman bride
Karen K. Hersch	135
Livia and the lex Voconia
Bronwyn Hopwood	143