

Contents

1	Female Novelists and Their Male Characters, 1750-2000: An Introduction Sarah S. G. Frantz and Katharina Rennhak	1
2	Happy Men?: Mid-Eighteenth-Century Women Writers and Ideal Masculinity Shawn Lisa Maurer	11
3	Male Privilege in Frances Burney's The Wanderer George E. Haggerty	31
4	The Medium Makes the Man: Anne Plumtre's Something New and The History of Myself and My Friend Katharina Rennhak	45
5	"Too much in the common Novel style": Reforming Masculinities in Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility Sarah Ailwood	67
6	Constructing Masculine Narrative: Charlotte Brontë's The Professor Sara Pearson	83
7	The Lifted Veil : George Eliot's Experiment with First-Person Narrative Frederick Burwick	101
8	Assimilating the "pretty youngster": George Eliot's Eroticized Men on the Borderlines of Morality, Religion, Race, and Nation Rainer Emig	119

9	“His spirituality or his manliness”: Elizabeth Stuart Phelps’s (Re)Constructions of Christian Masculinity Roxanne Harde	137
10	The Differential Construction of Masculinity in the Writings of Virginia Woolf Virginia Richter	155
11	Knitting Paradise Lost: Masculinity and Domesticity in the Novels of Carol Shields Ellen McWilliams	171
12	Looking (Im)Properly: Women Objectifying Men’s Bodies in Contemporary Australian Women’s Fiction Katherine Bode	185
13	Unmaking the Self-Made Man: Louise Erdrich’s Fictional Exploration of Masculinity Angela Laflen	207
14	“I’ve tried my entire life to be a good man”: Suzanne Brockmann’s Sam Starrett, Ideal Romance Hero Sarah S. G. Frantz	227
	Bibliography	249
	Index	267
	About the Contributors	271