

Contents

Illustrations	xii
List of Abbreviations	xiii
Introduction: 'The Heaven-Taught Ploughman'	1
1. Robert Burns and the 'New Husbandry'	15
Robert Burns, Tenant Farmer	15
Agricultural Improvement in Eighteenth-Century Lowland Scotland	23
'Prose Georgics': Burns and the Ideology of Improvement	31
'Agrarian Patriotism' and Sir John Sinclair's Statistical Account	37
2. Scots Pastoral	43
Burns and Pastoral	43
Generic Crossovers: Love and Labour	51
Pastoral Theory and the Vernacular	55
Allan Ramsay and Scots Pastoral	56
Robert Fergusson's 'Hame Content'	64
Burns's Kilmarnock Poems and the Copia Verborum	70
Dispossession and the 'Virgilian Dialectic'	76
3. The Making of a Poet	81
The First Commonplace Book	81
Verse Epistles in the Kilmarnock Volume	84
Burns and the Problem of Patronage	94
'The Vision': Labour, Poetry, Credit	98
Mapping Coila's Mantle	103
Georgic Eulogy in the 'Additional Stanzas'	108

4. Pastoral Politics	115
Burns and Politics	115
The Division of Ranks: 'Twa Dogs' and 'Man Was Made to Mourn'	118
John Barleycorn	125
America Lost	134
The King's Birthday	137
5. Beasties	144
Man and Beast	144
Sheep and Poetry	146
The Rights of Maggie	153
Of Mice and Men	159
'To a Louse' and Upward Mobility	168
6. Hellfire and Common Sense	179
Auld Lights, New Lights	179
Kirk Satire in the Reserved Canon: 'The Holy Tulzie' and 'Holy Willie's Prayer'	186
The Popular Supernatural: 'The Holy Fair', 'Address to the Deil', and 'Halloween'	189
'A candid lib'ral band': Religion and Improvement in the Edinburgh Poems	201
7. The Annals of the Poor	210
'A Tabernacle of Clay'	210
Cottage Politics	212
'Peace to the Husbandman': Pastoral Idealism and the Cotter Clearances	215
'The Cotter's Saturday Night'	222
'The Cotter': Reception, Imitation, Influence	231
'The Beggar's Saturday Night'	236

8. The Deil and the Exciseman	247
Poetry and The Excise Years	247
‘The De’il’s awa wi’ th’ Exciseman’: Burns’s Song Art	248
Burns and Antiquarian Irony	256
‘Tam o’ Shanter’ as ‘National Tail’	265
9. Across the Shadow Line: Robert Burns and British Romanticism	276
Dr James Currie’s Life of Burns	276
Observations on the Scottish Peasantry	285
Burns, Wordsworth, and Romantic Pastoral	292
Glossary	299
Bibliography	311
Index	329