

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
Elizabeth Boyle and Anne-Marie Evans
Part I: Youth and Age
A Gendered Approach to Ageing in Contemporary American Fiction: A Portrait of the Old Man in Philip Roth's Everyman	6
Alex Hobbs
Chasing After the Wind: The Adolescent Aporias of Jeffrey Eugenides ..	22
Rachael McLennan
Part II: War and Crime
Writing into the Twenty-First Century: Don DeLillo Terrorism and The Names	40
Leonard Wilcox
The American "Other" in the Gulf War Novel: Writing Race and National Identity in Christopher John Farley's My Favourite War	56
Jenna Pitchford
"Listen to him, Mr. Take-Charge": Gender Politics and Morality in Carl Hiaasen's Crime Novels	76
Alan Gibbs
Part III: Culture
"Feel like we been in a movie of the week!" The Politics of Television in Pynchon's Vineland	94
David Turton

Anthony Giardina as a Representative of the “Renaissance” of Italian American Writing	111
Francesca de Lucia

Part IV: Spaces and Patterns

“Justified in the World”: Spatial Values and Sensuous Geographies in Cormac McCarthy’s The Road	124
Anthony Warde

Of Machine Gods and Technological Daemons: Divine Patterns in Contemporary Fictions of Technology	138
Will Slocombe

Contributors	155
--------------------	-----