Contents

Contributors

xi

Introduction

Susan Osborn

1. Unstable compounds: Bowen’s Beckettian affinities
   Sinéad Mooney
   13

2. ‘How to measure this unaccountable darkness between the trees’: the strange relation of style and meaning in The Last September
   Susan Osborn
   34

3. Dead letters and living things: historical ethics in The House in Paris and The Death of the Heart
   Eluned Summers-Bremner
   61

4. Mumbo-jumbo: the haunted world of The Little Girls
   June Sturrock
   83

5. ‘She-ward bound’: Elizabeth Bowen as a sensationalist writer
   Shannon Wells-Lassagne
   96

6. Territory, space, modernity: Elizabeth Bowen’s The Demon Lover and Other Stories and wartime London
   Shafquat Towheed
   113