

Contents

List of Illustrations	xi
Compact Disc Track List	xv
Foreword by Peter Conolly-Smith	xvii
Preface	xxi
Introduction: German American Theater and Society	1
Part I: Musical Theater in Little Germany, 1840–1918: An Imported European Tradition
1 Early Struggles, Operatic Beginnings, and the Development of the German Theater in New York City, 1840–1872	19
2 Musical Farce and Folk Play at the Germania Theater, 1872–1883	54
3 Ethnic Spaces: Theatrical Entertainments in German Beer Gardens and Concert Halls	80
4 An Orgy of Operetta: The Thalia and Amberg Theaters, 1879–1893	101
5 Drama on a Higher Plane: The Irving Place Theater, 1893–1918	123
Part II: Entr'acte: German American Performers and Characterizations
6 German American Performers	143
7 The “Dutch” Act: German American Theatrical and Literary Characterizations	179
Part III: Adolf Philipp and the German American Immigrant Musical
8 Philipp’s Germania Theater Musical Comedies, 1893–1902	197

9	The German American Musical Abroad: Philipp in Berlin, 1903–1907	276
10	From Klein Deutschland to Broadway: Philipp's Works, 1907–1914	299
11	Divided Loyalties: World War I and Its Aftermath	338
	Conclusion: The Decline of the German American Stage in the 1920s and 1930s	361
Appendixes
A	Ethnic Theaters in the United States, ca. 1840–1940	381
B	Principal Professional German Stages in New York City, 1843–1918	384
C	Venues Used for German Performances, 1840s–1870s	389
D	Enumeration of Known Theatrical Performances in German in New York, Including Opera, by Year or Season, 1840–1872	393
E	Premieres of Opera and Operetta in German and Other Languages in New York, 1842–1893	395
F	Core Operatic and Operetta Repertory Performed in German in New York by Seasons, 1841–1872	402
G	Musical Plays, Operettas, and Operas Performed in German in New York, by Decades, 1840–1894	405
H	Marie Geistinger's Tours with Members of the Thalia Theater Company, 1881–1883	445
I	Adolf Neuendorff's Stage Works	453
J	Adolf Philipp's Stage Works	456
K	Recordings of Adolf Philipp's Stage Works	467
L	German Operatic Repertory at the Metropolitan Opera, 1916–1926 (with the Number of Performances by Seasons)	473
M	German Theatrical Performances in New York in 1919	476

Archives and Collections Consulted	479
Key to Abbreviations	481
Notes	483
Bibliography	537
Index	575