Contents

Introduction Juncture and Form in New Media Criticism 1
Francisco J. Ricardo

Chapter One What is and Toward What End Do We Read Digital Literature? 10
Roberto Simanowski
a. Post-Chapter Dialogue, Simanowski and Ricardo 17

Chapter Two List(en)ing Post 22
Rita Raley
a. Post-Chapter Dialogue, Raley and Ricardo 35

Chapter Three Strickland and Lawson Jaramillo's slippingglimpse: Distributed Cognition at/in Work 38
N. Katherine Hayles
a. Post-Chapter Dialogue, Hayles and Ricardo 48

Chapter Four Reading the Discursive Spaces of Text Rain, Transmodally 52
Francisco J. Ricardo

Chapter Five Kissing the Steak: The Poetry of Text Generators 69
Christopher T. Funkhouser
a. Post-Chapter Dialogue, Funkhouser and Ricardo 80

Chapter Six Geopoetics: Aesthetic Experience in the Works of Stefan Schemat and Teri Rueb 84
Katja Kwastek
a. Post-Chapter Dialogue, Kwastek and Ricardo 106

Chapter Seven Self, Setting, and Situation in Second Life 109
Maria Bäcke
a. Post-Chapter Dialogue, Bäcke and Ricardo 140

Chapter Eight Looking behind the Façade: Playing and Performing an Interactive Drama 143
Jörgen Schäfer
a. Post-Chapter Dialogue, Schäfer and Ricardo 162

Ricardo, Francisco J.
Literary art in digital performance 2009

digitalisiert durch:
IDS Basel Bern

Chapter Nine Artificial Poetry: On Aesthetic Perception in Computer-Aided Literature 167
Peter Gendolla
a. Post-Chapter Dialogue, Gendolla and Ricardo 176

Chapter Ten Screen Writing: A Practice-based, EuroRelative Introduction to Digital Literature and Poetics 178
John Cayley
a. Post-Chapter Dialogue, Cayley and Ricardo 187

Index 191