

Contents

Acknowledgments	vi
List of Contributors	vii
Introduction: Emotion in Literature: Genre and Gender Dana LaCourse Munteanu	1
1. Veiling Grief on the Tragic Stage Douglas L. Cairns	15
2. Cowardice and Gender in the Iliad and Greek Tragedy Jessica Wissmann	34
3. Women's Emotions in New Comedy Dorota Dutsch and David Konstan	57
4. Comic Emotions: Shamelessness and Envy (Schadenfreude); Moderate Emotion Dana LaCourse Munteanu	89
5. Helen as Vixen, Helen as Victim: Remorse and the Opacity of Female Desire Laurel Fulkerson	113
6. Emotions in Ecphrasis and Art Criticism Évelyne Prioux	135
7. One Wife, One Love: Coniugalis Amor , Grief and Masculinity in Statius' Silvae Anna McCullough	175
8. Absit Malignus Interpres : Martial's Preface to Book One of the Epigrams and the Construction of Audience Response Peter J. Anderson	193
9. De Bello Civili 2.326-91: Cato Gets Married Margaret Graver	221
10. Engendering Reception: Joseph Brodsky's 'Dido and Aeneas' Zara Martirosova Torlone	241
Index	261