CONTENTS

- Preface and Acknowledgments xi
- 1 The Modern World Was an Economic Tide, But Did Not Have Economic Causes 1
 - 2 Liberal Ideas Caused the Innovation 10
 - 3 And a New Rhetoric Protected the Ideas 20
 - 4 Many Other Plausible Stories Don't Work Very Well 31
 - 5 The Correct Story Praises "Capitalism" 40
 - 6 Modern Growth Was a Factor of at Least Sixteen 48
 - 7 Increasing Scope, Not Pot-of-Pleasure "Happiness," Is What Mattered 60
 - 8 And the Poor Won 70
 - 9 Creative Destruction Can Be Justified Therefore on Utilitarian Grounds 78
 - 10 British Economists Did Not Recognize the Tide 86
 - 11 But the Figures Tell 93
 - 12 Britain's (and Europe's) Lead Was an Episode 101
 - 13 And Followers Could Leap over Stages 113

- 14 The Tide Didn't Happen because of Thrift 125
- 15 Capital Fundamentalism Is Wrong 133
- 16 A Rise of Greed or of a Protestant Ethic Didn't Happen 140
- 17 "Endless" Accumulation Does Not Typify the Modern World 146
- 18 Nor Was the Cause Original Accumulation or a Sin of Expropriation 153
- 19 Nor Was It Accumulation of Human Capital, Until Lately 161
- 20 Transport or Other Domestic Reshufflings Didn't Cause It 168
- 21 Nor Geography, nor Natural Resources 178
- 22 Not Even Coal 186
- 23 Foreign Trade Was Not the Cause, Though World Prices Were a Context 197
- 24 And the Logic of Trade-as-an-Engine Is Dubious 207
- 25 And Even the Dynamic Effects of Trade Were Small 217
- 26 The Effects on Europe of the Slave Trade and British Imperialism Were Smaller Still 229
- 27 And Other Exploitations, External or Internal, Were Equally Profitless to Ordinary Europeans 239
- 28 It Was Not the Sheer Quickening of Commerce 249
- 29 Nor the Struggle over the Spoils 256
- 30 Eugenic Materialism Doesn't Work 266
- 31 Neo-Darwinism Doesn't Compute 277
- 32 And Inheritance Fades 286

- 33 Institutions Cannot Be Viewed Merely as Incentive-
Providing Constraints 296
- 34 And So the Better Institutions, Such as Those Alleged for 1689, Don't Explain 310
- 35 And Anyway the Entire Absence of Property Is Not Relevant to the Place or Period 325
- 36 And the Chronology of Property and Incentives Has Been Mismeasured 336
- 37 And So the Routine of Max U Doesn't Work 346
- 38 The Cause Was Not Science 355
- 39 But Bourgeois Dignity and Liberty Entwined with the Enlightenment 366
- 40 It Was Not Allocation 377
- 41 It Was Words 385
- 42 Dignity and Liberty for Ordinary People, in Short, Were the Greatest Externalities 393
- 43 And the Model Can Be Formalized 406
- 44 Opposing the Bourgeoisie Hurts the Poor 420
- 45 And the Bourgeois Era Warrants Therefore Not Political or Environmental Pessimism 430
- 46 But an Amiable, if Guarded, Optimism 439
- Notes 451
- Works Cited 493
