

Contents

Preface vii

Acknowledgments xix

A Note on Citation xxi

PART ONE: ENLIGHTENMENT AND HAMANN'S REACTION

- 1 Introduction: The Enlightenment as a Historical Movement and Political Project 3
- 2 Transfiguring the Enlightenment: Hamann and the Problem of Public Reason 25

PART TWO: THE POLITICS OF METACRITIQUE: HAMANN CONTRA KANT

- 3 Critique and Metacritique: Kant and Hamann 57
- 4 Varieties of Copernican Turn 76
- 5 The Ideas of God and the Person 85

PART THREE: LANGUAGE AND THE CITY IN MODERN NATURAL LAW: HAMANN'S CONTROVERSY WITH MOSES MENDELSSOHN

- 6 Leviathan and Jerusalem: Rights and 'the Laws of Wisdom and Goodness' 105

vi Contents

7 Faith, Inside and Out: Convictions versus Actions, Eternity versus History 121

8 Language and Society 139

PART FOUR: PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS OF AN IMPRACTICAL MAN: HAMANN CONTRA FREDERICK II

9 The Language of Enlightenment and the Practice of Despotism: J.G. Hamann's Polemics against Frederick the Great 159

PART FIVE: AESTHETICS: HAMANN'S ANTI-ARTISTIC AESTHETICISM

10 Aesthetic, All Too Aesthetic: Hamann on the Battle between Poetry and Philosophy 195

11 Conclusion 224

Notes 233

Bibliography 325

Index 337