

Contents

List of illustrations	viii
List of abbreviations	xi
Foreword	xiv
Acknowledgements	xvi
Executive Summary	1
Paul van den Noord and István P. Székely
1 A crisis of historic proportions	1
2 Vast policy challenges	2
3 A strong call on EU coordination	5
PART I
Anatomy of the crisis	9
1 Root causes of the crisis	11
Paul van den Noord and István P. Székely
1.1 Introduction	11
1.2 A chronology of the main events	12
1.3 Global forces behind the crisis	14
2 The crisis from a historical perspective	18
Ronald Albers and Lars Jonung
2.1 Introduction	18
2.2 Great crises in the past	18
2.3 The policy response then and now	22
2.4 Lessons from the past	24

PART II
Economic consequences of the crisis	27
1 Impact on actual and potential growth	29
Uwe Böwer, Jan in't Veld, Kieran Mc Morrow, Werner Röger and Alessandro Turrini
1.1 Introduction	29
1.2 The impact on economic activity	29
1.3 The impact of the crisis on potential growth	32
2 Impact on labour market and employment	39
Alfonso Arpaia and Guisepe Carone
2.1 Introduction	39
2.2 Recent developments	39
2.3 Labour market expectations	41
2.4 A comparison with recent recessions	42
3 Impact on budgetary positions	46
Salvador Barrios, Sven Langedijk, Andrea Schächter and Paul van den Noord
3.1 Introduction	46
3.2 Tracking developments in fiscal deficits	46
3.3 Tracking public debt developments	48
3.4 Fiscal stress and sovereign risk spreads	49
3.5 Sustainability effects	50
4 Impact on external imbalances and competitiveness	53
Paul van den Noord
4.1 Introduction	53
4.2 A symmetric shock with asymmetric implications	53
4.3 The role of initial conditions	54
4.4 The ongoing adjustment	56
4.5 Implications for the euro area	56
5 Impact on global imbalances	58
Eric Ruscher and Guntram B. Wolff
5.1 Introduction	58
5.2 Sources of global imbalances	58
5.3 Global imbalances since the crisis	60
5.4 Implications for the EU economy	62

PART III
Policy responses	67
1 A primer on financial crisis policies	69
Gabor Koltay, Alessandro Turrini and Paul van den Noord
1.1 Introduction	69
1.2 The EU crisis policy framework	72
1.3 The importance of EU coordination	73
2 Crisis control and mitigation	76
Declan Costello, Jonas Fischer, Gilles Mourre, Markus Schulte and Paul van den Noord
2.1 Introduction	76
2.2 Banking support	76
2.3 Macroeconomic policies	79
2.4 Structural policies	85
3 Crisis resolution and prevention	92
Paul van den Noord and István P. Székely
3.1 Introduction	92
3.2 Crisis resolution policies	92
3.3 Crisis prevention	94
4 Policy challenges ahead	97
Paul van den Noord and István P. Székely
4.1 Introduction	97
4.2 The pursuit of crisis resolution	98
4.3 The role of EU coordination	101
Notes	103
Bibliography	105
Index	108