

Contents

Preface	ix
Part I: Foundations of Internet Advertising Theory	I
1 The Internet Waits for No One Esther Thorson, Margaret Duffy, and David W. Schumann	3
2 Internet Advertising: One Face or Many? Sally J. McMillan	15
3 Theoretical Approaches in Internet Advertising Research Anca C. Micu	37
4 Internet Integrated Marketing Communications (I-IMC): Theory and Practice James R. Coyle and Stephen J. Gould	69
Part II: Consumer Response Associated With Internet Advertising	89
5 Motivations for Using the Internet and Its Implications for Internet Advertising Steven M. Edwards	91
6 Computer Agents as Sources of Trust in Internet Advertising Eun-Ju Lee	121
7 Segmenting Internet Markets Shelly Rodgers, Hugh M. Cannon, and Jensen Moore	149
8 The Process and Consequences of Cognitive Filtering of Internet Content: Handling the Glut of Internet Advertising Karen Hood and David W. Schumann	185

9	Examining the Effectiveness of Internet Advertising Formats Hairong Li and John D. Leckenby	203
10	Measuring Interactive Marketing Communication: Conceptual Foundations and Empirical Operationalizations David W. Stewart and Paul A. Pavlou	225
11	The Interactive Advertising Model: Additional Insights Into Response to Spamming Shelly Rodgers and Qimei Chen	259
Part III: Special Topics		285
12	Global Issues in Online Advertising Carrie La Ferle	287
13	Internet Advertising in Online Newspapers Clyde H. Bentley	313
14	The New Online Campaign: Translating Information Into Action Kjerstin Thorson and Brendan Watson	323
15	Internet Advertising and Children Sabrina M. Neeley	343
16	Health Marketing and the Internet Patricia A. Stout, Jennifer G. Ball, and Jorge Villegas	363
17	Advertising Hate on the Internet Michael S. Waltman and John W. Haas	397
18	From Spam to Stern: Advertising Law and the Internet Sandra Davidson	427
Part IV: Conclusion: A Look Toward the Future		473
19	Where Are Our Trends Leading Us? Questions About the Future David W. Schumann and Esther Thorson	475
Author Index		485
Subject Index		503