

Contents

List of Figures	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii

Editor's Introduction	1
-----------------------	---

PART I

Mainstages

1	The 2003–2004 Season and Broadway Musical Theatre as a Political Conversant	19
	STACY WOLF
2	The Ubiquitous Orange Jumpsuit: Staging Iconic Images and the Production of the Commons	38
	JOSHUA ABRAMS
3	America as Rogue State: Caryl Churchill's Drunk Enough to Say I Love You?	53
	AMELIA HOWE KRITZER
4	Terrorized by the War on Terror: Mark Ravenhill's Shoot / Get Treasure / Repeat	63
	JENNY SPENCER
5	Unraveling the "Golden Thread": Performing the Politics of Black Watch	79
	MARCIA BLUMBERG
6	Voices of the Other: Documentary and Oral History Performance in Post-9/11 British Theatre	93
	RYAN CLAYCOMB

PART II
Alternative Spaces

7	Antiwar Activism and the Structures of Trauma in the Plays of Eve Ensler and Kathryn Blume	111
	EMILY KLEIN
8	Why We Have Failed: Culture Project's Iraq War Plays	127
	JEANNE COLLERAN
9	Descent as Dissent: Arab American Theatrical Responses to 9/11	143
	DALIA BASIOUNY
10	A View of The Brig: From the Cage to the Street	156
	KATY RYAN
11	Camping on the Streets, Squares, and Wastelands of Power: Theatrical Protest and the "War on Terror" in the U.K.	174
	JENNY HUGHES
12	Patriot Acts: All-American Tactical Performance in the Age of Permawar	191
	L.M. BOGAD
13	Performing Citizenship: The Concert for New York City and the Construction of Post-9/11 America	208
	JENNIFER L. CHAN
14	The Maladapted Hothead Paisan: A Lesbian Comedy of Terrors	219
	SARA WARNER
	List of Contributors	235
	Index	239