

Contents

Preface	ix
Abbreviations	xi
Introduction	I
CHAPTER 1 Birth of a Borderland	17
CHAPTER 2 A Region on the Move: Labor Migration and the Rethinking of Space, 1870–1914	33
CHAPTER 3 “Every reason to be on their guard!” German Nationalism across the Frontier, 1880–1914	57
CHAPTER 4 What’s in a State? Citizens, Sovereignty, and Territory in the Great War, 1914–19	81
CHAPTER 5 The Ties That Bind: Economic Mobility, Economic Crisis, and Geographies of Instability, 1919–29	112
CHAPTER 6 Connecting People to Places: Foreigners and Citizens in Frontier Society, 1919–32	131
CHAPTER 7 Borderlands in Crisis, 1929–33	158

CHAPTER 8
“No border is eternal”: The Road to Dissolution, 1933–38	181
Epilogue: Occupation, Expulsion, and Resurrection	202
Notes	213
Selected Bibliography	253
Index	265