

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
Abbreviations	xi
1 Introduction	1
1.1 Rome and the Jews after A.D. 70	18
2 “Are the deeds of Babylon better than those of Zion?”
4 Ezra and the Delayed Punishment of Rome	39
2.1 Summary of the Text	41
2.2 Original Language, Versions, and Composition Date ...	44
2.3 Analysis	57
2.4 Conclusion	75
3 “Why do you look for the decline of your enemies?”
2 Baruch and the Roman Question	79
3.1 Summary of the Text	82
3.2 Original Language, Versions, and Composition Date ...	87
3.3 Analysis	89
3.4 Conclusion	108
4 “Where is their God?”
3 Baruch and the Divine Government of the Cosmos	111
4.1 Summary of the Text	114
4.2 Original Language, Versions, and Composition Date ...	117
4.3 Analysis	120
4.4 Conclusion	141
5 “Let anyone who desires the Lord forsake the works of Babylon”
4 Baruch and Jewish Cooperation with Rome	143
5.1 Summary of the Text	145
5.2 Original Language and Composition Date	148
5.3 Analysis	157
5.4 Conclusion	171

6	“Then the strife of war will come to the West”
	Sibylline Oracle 4 and the Conflict of East and West	173
6.1	Summary of the Text	176
6.2	Composition Date	178
6.3	Analysis	181
6.4	Conclusion	204
7	“Then he will return declaring himself equal to God”
	Sibylline Oracle 5 and the Return of Nero	209
7.1	Summary of the Text	210
7.2	Composition Date	213
7.3	Analysis	215
7.4	Conclusion	242
8	“And I saw there the likeness of the idol of jealousy”
	The Apocalypse of Abraham and Jewish Idolatry	245
8.1	Summary of the Text	246
8.2	Original Language and Composition Date	251
8.3	Analysis	256
8.4	Conclusion	270
9	Conclusion	271
	Bibliography	281
	Index	295