

Contents

List of Figures and Tables	page ix
Contributor Biographies	xi
Foreword – Arctic Futures: The Politics of Transformation Oran R. Young	xxi
PART I INTRODUCTION: CIRCUMPOLAR PERSPECTIVES
1 Arctic Security: The Indirect Approach Franklyn Griffiths	3
2 The Challenges and Security Issues of Arctic Marine Transport Lawson W. Brigham	20
3 The Arctic Meltdown and Its Implication for Ports and Shipping in Asia Joshua H. Ho	33
PART II EUROPEAN SECURITY INTERESTS IN THE ARCTIC
4 Arctic Security and Norway Rolf Tamnes	47
5 Norway and the Arctic: Between Multilateral Governance and Geopolitics Geir Flikke	64

6	Military Aspects of Russia's Arctic Policy: Hard Power and Natural Resources	85
	Katarzyna Zysk
7	The Russian Arctic in the Twenty-First Century	107
	Caitlyn L. Antrim
8	The Rise of the Arctic on the Global Stage	129
	Pauli Järvenpää and Tomas Ries
9	The Arctic Challenge to Danish Foreign and Security Policy	145
	Nikolaj Petersen
10	Arctic Security: A Greenlandic Perspective	166
	Adam Worm
11	Territorial Discourses and Identity Politics: Iceland's Role in the Arctic	174
	Valur Ingimundarson
 PART III NORTH AMERICAN SECURITY INTERESTS IN THE ARCTIC
12	Canada and the Newly Emerging International Arctic Security Regime	193
	Rob Huebert
13	Polar Race or Polar Saga? Canada and the Circumpolar World	218
	P. Whitney Lackenbauer
14	The New Arctic Geography and U.S. Strategy	244
	James Kraska
15	Arctic Security Considerations and the U.S. Navy's "Arctic Roadmap"	267
	David W. Titley and Courtney C. St. John
 Afterword: A United Kingdom Perspective on the Role of Navies in Delivering Arctic Security
	Lee Willett	281
 Index
		299