

Contents

PART I

Introduction

- 1 The Rebel: Hemingway and the Struggle Against Politics 3
LAURETTA CONKLIN FREDERKING

PART II

Hemingway in Liberal Times

- 2 Hemingway on Being in Our Time 19
CATHERINE ZUCKERT
- 3 Hemingway, Hopelessness, and Liberalism 50
WILLIAM CURTIS

PART III

The Politics of Morality, Manliness, and God

- 4 Ethics Without Theodicy in Ernest Hemingway's
*A Farewell to Arms 75
SAYRES RUDY
- 5 Manly Assertion 91
HARVEY MANSFIELD
- 6 Hemingway, Religion, and Masculine Virtue 104
JOSEPH PRUD'HOMME

PART IV

The Impossibility of Politics

7	Hemingway's For Whom the Bell Tolls: Rebellion and the Meaning of Politics in the Spanish Civil War	133
	KERSTIN HAMANN
8	"The Revolutionist"	151
	DAVID WINSTON CONKLIN
9	To Have and Have Not: Hemingway Through the Lens of Theodor Adorno	171
	LAURETTA CONKLIN FREDERKING
	Contributors	197
	Index	199