

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: Space Exploration in the Soviet Context 1
James T. Andrews and Asif A. Siddiqi

Part I. The Space Project: Cultural Context and Historical Background

1. The Cultural Spaces of the Soviet Cosmos 15
Alexei Kojevnikov

2. Getting Ready for Khrushchev's Sputnik: Russian Popular Culture and National Markers at the Dawn of the Space Age 28
James T. Andrews

Part II. Myth and Reality in the Soviet Space Program

3. Cosmic Contradictions: Popular Enthusiasm and Secrecy
in the Soviet Space Program 47
Asif A. Siddiqi

4. The Human inside a Propaganda Machine: The Public Image and Professional Identity of Soviet Cosmonauts 77
Slava Gerovitch
 5. The Sincere Deceiver: Yuri Gagarin and the Search for a Higher Truth 107
Andrew Jenks
 6. Cold War Celebrity and the Courageous Canine Scout: The Life and Times of Soviet Space Dogs 133
Amy Nelson
- Part III. The Soviet Space Program and the Cultural Front
7. Cosmic Enlightenment: Scientific Atheism and the Soviet Conquest of Space 159
Victoria Smolkin-Rothrock
 8. She Orbits over the Sex Barrier: Soviet Girls and the Tereshkova Moment 195
Roshanna P. Sylvester
 9. From the Kitchen into Orbit: The Convergence of Human Spaceflight and Khrushchev's Nascent Consumerism 213
Cathleen S. Lewis
 10. Cold War Theaters: Cosmonaut Titov at the Berlin Wall 240
Heather L. Gumbert
- Notes 263
- Contributors 317
- Index 321