

Contents

|   |      |
|---|------|
| Preface                                  | vii  |
| Acknowledgments                          | xi   |
| Introduction                             | xiii |
|   |      |
| Part One: Art and History                |      |
| 1. Defining Art Historically                    | 3    |
| 2. Hybrid Art Forms                             | 26   |
| 3. Refining Art Historically                    | 37   |
|   |      |
| Part Two: Metaphysics of Art             |      |
| 4. What a Musical Work Is                       | 63   |
| 5. Autographic and Allographic Art Revisited    | 89   |
| 6. Aesthetic Uniqueness                         | 107  |
| 7. Aesthetic Supervenience                      | 134  |
| 8. Titles                                       | 159  |
| 9. Artworks and the Future                      | 179  |
| 10. What a Musical Work Is, Again               | 215  |
|   |      |
| Part Three: Musical Matters              |      |
| 11. The Concept of Music                        | 267  |
| 12. Truth in Music                              | 279  |
| 13. Music and Negative Emotion                  | 306  |
| 14. Hope in The Hebrides                 | 336  |
| 15. Evaluating Musical Performance              | 376  |
| 16. Authentic Performance and Performance Means | 393  |
|   |      |
| Index                                    | 409  |