

Table of Contents

Introduction Helmut Schmitz and Annette Seidel-Arpaci	1
1. History and Historiography
‘Killing Us in a Slow Way Instead of Doing it with Gas’: The German Catholic Discourse of ‘Suffering’, 1946-59 Suzanne Brown-Fleming	17
Imperialist Air War. East German academic Research and Memory Politics reflected in the Work of Olaf Groehler Bas von Benda-Beckmann	33
2. Public Memory and Mourning
Hitler’s Legacy in Concrete and Steel: Memory and Civil Defence Bunkers in West Germany, 1950-65 Nicholas J. Steneck	59
Expressions of Memory in Pforzheim, a City hit by Air War Christian Groh	75
‘Den Toten der ostdeutschen Heimat’: Local Expellee Monuments and the Construction of Post-war Narratives Jeffrey Luppés	89
Das Trauma der deutschen Kriegskinder zwischen nationaler und europäischer Erinnerung: Kritische Anmerkungen zum gegenwärtigen Wandel der Erinnerungskultur Michael Heinlein	111

3. Visual and Literary Representation

Double Visions: 129
Queer Feminity and Holocaust Film
Cathy S. Gelbin

Foundational Traumas: 143
On a Figure of Thought in Recent German Literature on Wartime Suffering
Helmut Schmitz

4. International Perspectives

German Victimhood Discourse in Comparative Perspective 163
Bill Niven

Holland and the German Point of View: 181
On the Dutch Reactions to German Victimhood
Krijn Thijs

The Miracle Workers: 201
'German Suffering', Israeli Masculinity, and the Feminised/Queered Nation as Redemptive in Eytan Fox's *Walk On Water
Annette Seidel-Arpaci

List of Contributors 217

Index 221