

Contents

Acknowledgments	page viii
A note on abbreviations	xi
Introduction	I
1 From curses to blessings: horkos in the Oresteia	35
2 Speaking like a man: oaths in Sophocles' Trachiniae and Philoctetes	70
3 Horkos in the polis: Athens, Thebes and Sophocles	102
4 Perjury and other perversions: Euripides' Phoenissae , Orestes and Cyclops	123
5 Twisted justice in Aristophanes' Clouds	158
6 Women and oaths in Euripides	177
7 How to do things with Euripides: Aristophanes' Thesmophoriazusae	203
8 Swearing off sex: the women's oath in Aristophanes' Lysistrata	220
Conclusion	241
Bibliography	249
Index locorum	270
General index	275