

Contents

Preface	page vii
Notes on contributors	viii
Introduction James Crawford and Martti Koskeniemi	1
Part I The contexts of international law	23
1 International law in diplomatic history Gerry Simpson	25
2 International law in the world of ideas Martti Koskeniemi	47
3 International law as law Frédéric Mégret	64
Part II International law and the state	93
4 Statehood: territory, people, government Karen Knop	95
5 Sovereignty as a legal value James Crawford	117
6 Exercise and limits of jurisdiction Bruno Simma and Andreas Th. Müller	134
7 Lawfare and warfare David Kennedy	158
Part III Techniques and arenas	185
8 Law-making and sources Hilary Charlesworth	187

9	International courts: uneven judicialisation in global order Benedict Kingsbury	203
10	International institutions Jan Klabbers	228
11	International law and the relativities of enforcement Dino Kritsiotis	245
	Part IV Projects of international law	269
12	Constituting order Anne Orford	271
13	Legitimizing the international rule of law B. S. Chimni	290
14	Human rights in disastrous times Susan Marks	309
15	Justifying justice Sarah M. H. Nouwen	327
16	Regulating trade, investment and money Hélène Ruiz Fabri	352
17	Divided against itself: aspiration and reality of international law Thomas Pogge	373
18	Conserving the world's resources? Sundhya Pahuja	398
	Guide to electronic sources of international law Lesley Dingle	421
	International law chronology	438
	Select guide to further reading	444
	Index	453