

Contents

List of Illustrations	viii
Preface and Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: Reading Colonial Realism	1
1 Taking Objects for Origins: Victorian Ethnography and Conrad's Heart of Darkness	29
1 Ethnographic Doubling	35
2 Of Trifles and Trade: Conrad's Ethnography of Colonialism	45
3 Authenticity on the Market, an Afterword	62
2 The Uncanny Object Lessons of Mary Kingsley and Edward Blyden	74
1 If Objects Could Speak, "many a wild story the handles of your table knives could tell"	76
2 Out of England: Objects and Others	92
3 Not "an object in the midst of other objects"	104
3 Realism and Realia in Colonial Southern Africa	123
1 Collecting Cape Colony Life	124
2 Specimens and Curiosities in Carey-Hobson's The Farm in the Karoo	134
3 Outside the Realist Collection: Reckless Generosity and Other Notions of Expenditure	145
4 Curses and Gifts in Anna Howarth's Karoo Novels	153
4 Artful Tales and Indigenous Arts in Olive Schreiner's The Story of an African Farm	175
1 A Portrait of the Artist as a Colonial South African	180
2 Schreiner's Grotesque Realism	190
3 Histories and "Bushman" Painters	198
Coda	217
Bibliography	225
Index	237