Contents

Series Editor’s Introduction vii
Publisher’s Acknowledgements ix
Introduction: Anthropology, Islam, and Pakistan xi

1. Of Children and Jinns: An Enquiry into an Unexpected Friendship during Uncertain Times 1
   Naveeda Khan

2. The Modern Businessman and the Pakistani Saint: The Interpenetration of Worlds 34
   Katherine P. Ewing

3. Islamic Influences on Socio-legal Conditions of Pakistani Women 52
   Anita M. Weiss

4. Religious Education and the Rhetoric of Reform: The Madrassahs in British India and Pakistan 76
   Muhammad Qasim Zaman

5. Reforming Mysticism: Sindhi Separatist Intellectuals in Pakistan 111
   Oskar Verkaaik

6. Flagellation and Fundamentalism: (Trans)forming Meaning, Identity, and Gender through Pakistani Women’s Rituals of Mourning 132
   Mary Elaine Hegland

7. The Sunni-Shia Conflict in Jhang (Pakistan) 164
   Mariam Abou Zahab
Contents

8. Langar: Pilgrimage, Sacred Exchange, and Perpetual Sacrifice in a Sufi Saint’s Lodge
   Pnina Werbner
   177

9. All-Male Sonic Gatherings, Islamic Reform, and Masculinity in Northern Pakistan
   Magnus Marsden
   201

10. Selves and Others: Representing Multiplicities of Difference in Gilgit and the Northern Areas of Pakistan
    Martin Sökefeld
    235

11. Islam, the State, and Identity: The Zikris of Balochistan
    Inayatullah Baloch
    259

12. Sakineh, the Narrator of Karbala: An Ethnographic Description of Women’s Majles Ritual in Pakistan
    Shemeem Burney Abbas
    283

13. Al-Huda: Of Allah and the Power-Point
    Sadaf Ahmad
    299

    S.V.R. Nasr
    327

15. The Poetics of ‘Sufi’ Practice: Drumming, Dancing, and Complex Agency at Madho Lal Husain (and Beyond)
    Richard K. Wolf
    367

Bibliography
   404

Notes on Contributors
   435

Index
   441