

Contents

| | |
|---|-------------|
| Acknowledgements | viii |
| Introduction | 1 |
| Book structure | 2 |
| Learning features | 3 |
| Professional development and reflective practice | 3 |
| 1 Psychology and Early Childhood Studies | 4 |
| Introduction | 5 |
| Defining the discipline of psychology | 5 |
| Origins of psychology | 6 |
| The schools of psychology | 8 |
| Behaviourism | 9 |
| Humanism | 11 |
| Psychodynamic theory | 12 |
| Cognitive theory | 14 |
| Biological psychology | 16 |
| Applying psychology to early years | 16 |
| Psychological therapies and the early years | 24 |
| 2 Sociology and Early Childhood Studies | 30 |
| Defining sociology | 31 |
| The sociological perspectives | 33 |
| Functionalism | 34 |
| Interactionism | 36 |
| Conflict theory | 37 |
| Applying sociology to early years | 40 |
| Critical appraisal of how sociological theory can be used by early years | 47 |
| Foucauldian shadows of power and oppression | 49 |

| | | |
|----------|---|------------|
| 3 | Social Policy and Early Childhood Studies | 53 |
| | What is social policy? | 54 |
| | The social policy process | 55 |
| | The concept of partnership | 56 |
| | Historical factors influencing social policy | 57 |
| | The 'partnership approach' to social policy and early years | 70 |
| 4 | Pedagogy and Early Childhood Studies | 79 |
| | Introduction | 80 |
| | Educational psychology | 80 |
| | Theories of learning: behaviourism | 81 |
| | Cognitive learning theory | 86 |
| | Humanist pedagogical theory | 91 |
| | Learning theories, domains of learning and pedagogy | 98 |
| | Learning theories review | 99 |
| | Taxonomies of learning | 101 |
| | Good classroom communication skills | 104 |
| 5 | Enhancing Learning and Early Childhood Studies | 110 |
| | Introduction | 111 |
| | Defining the curriculum, widening participation and inclusion | 111 |
| | Curriculum design and implementation for inclusive practice | 113 |
| | Reviewing, evaluating and adapting the early years curriculum to promote inclusive practice | 122 |
| | Equality and diversity – ethical and legal issues and curriculum development for inclusive practice | 126 |
| | Appraising the curriculum | 130 |
| 6 | Research Methods and Early Childhood Studies | 133 |
| | Defining research | 134 |
| | The research process | 135 |
| | Competing perspectives | 135 |
| | Research methods | 136 |
| | Validity | 136 |
| | Reliability | 137 |
| | Triangulation | 138 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Research ethics | 139 |
| The research models | 141 |
| The research methods | 145 |
| Analysing data | 148 |
| Critical appraisal of the research process | 154 |
| Example research project in Early Childhood Studies | 157 |
| Conclusion | 163 |
| Book structure | 163 |
| Chapter themes | 164 |
| Answers | 166 |
| References | 171 |
| Index | 177 |