

Table of contents

Introductory remarks	1
Barbara Dancygier, José Sanders and Lieven Vandelanotte
Illusions of simplicity: A cognitive approach to visual poetry	5
Mike Borkent
Alternativity in poetry and drama: Textual intersubjectivity and framing	25
Barbara Dancygier
Joint attention, To the Lighthouse , and modernist representations of intersubjectivity	45
Vera Tobin
'Where am I, lurking in what place of vantage?': The discourse of distance in John Banville's fiction	63
Lieven Vandelanotte
Intertwined voices: Journalists' modes of representing source information in journalistic subgenres	87
José Sanders
Unrealistic scenarios, metaphorical blends and rhetorical strategies across genres	111
Elena Semino
LIFE IS MUSIC: A case study of a novel metaphor and its use in discourse	137
Elżbieta Górská
Two puzzle pieces : Fitting discourse context and constructions into cognitive metaphor theory	157
Carol Lynn Moder
Textual choices in discourse: Emerging views from cognitive linguistics	185
Barbara Dancygier, José Sanders and Lieven Vandelanotte
Acknowledgements	193
Index	195