

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Notes on Contributors	viii
Introduction	1
1 Poetic Genius and its Classical Origins Penelope Murray	9
2 The 'Super-artist' as Genius: The Sixteenth-Century View Martin Kemp	32
3 The Second Homeric Renaissance: Allegoresis and Genius in Early Modern Poetics Glenn Most	54
4 Shakespeare and Original Genius Jonathan Bate	76
5 Goethe on Genius Michael Beddow	98
6 The Emptiness of Genius: Aspects of Romanticism Drummond Bone	113
7 Nietzsche on Genius Michael Tanner	128
8 Deconstructing Genius: Paul de Man and the Critique of Romantic Ideology Christopher Norris	141
9 What is Musical Genius? Wilfrid Mellers	166

10	Genius in Mathematics Clive Kilmister	181
11	Genius and Mental Disorder: A History of Ideas Concerning their Conjunction Neil Kessel	196
12	Genius and Psychoanalysis: Freud, Jung and the Concept of Personality Anthony Storr	213
	Select Bibliography	231
	Index	233