

Contents

Preface	V
Abbreviations.....	X

PART ONE: OATHS IN THE POLIS

1 Introduction (A.H. Sommerstein).....	3
2 Oaths and citizenship (A.J. Bayliss).....	9
2.1 Initial considerations	9
2.2 Oaths as stepping-stones to citizenship at Athens.....	11
2.3 The Athenian ephebic oath.....	13
2.4 The oath of the Spartan sworn bands (enōmotiai).....	22
2.5 Citizenship oaths in new states.....	29
2.6 Oaths in synoecisms.....	31
3 Oaths of office (A.J. Bayliss)	33
3.1 Royal oaths.....	34
3.2 High officials: archons and generals	38
3.3 The Athenian bouleutic oath	40
3.4 Minor officials	43
3.5 The exōmosia for office(s).....	44
4 Assemblies (A.H. Sommerstein).....	47
5 The judicial sphere (A.H. Sommerstein).....	57
5.1 Homer and Hesiod.....	57
5.2 Archaic practices and their survival; Gortyn.....	62
5.3 Athens: introduction	67
5.4 The dicastic oath.....	69
5.5 Litigants' preliminary oaths.....	80
5.6 Excusing absence.....	81
5.7 Oath to avoid irrelevance?.....	82
5.8 Oaths and oath-offers during court speeches	86
5.9 Did witnesses swear?.....	87
5.10 Refusing to testify: the exōmosia	91
5.11 Oath-challenges.....	101
5.12 The antidosis	108
5.13 Arbitrators.....	108

5.14	Homicide and the Areopagus	111
5.15	Nomothetai	115
5.16	Judges of festival competitions.....	118
6	Sunōmosiai (conspiracies) (A.H. Sommerstein).....	120
7	(Re)uniting the citizen body	129
PART TWO: OATHS AND INTERSTATE RELATIONS
(A.J. Bayliss)
	Introduction	147
8	The formulation and procedure of interstate oaths.....	151
8.1	Rituals	151
8.2	Gods invoked	160
8.3	Divine punishment.....	167
8.4	Giving and receiving oaths: who swears?	175
9	Oaths in alliances.....	185
9.1	“We will fight together”.....	186
9.2	The Oath at Plataea (L.A. Kozak)	192
9.3	Anti-deceit clauses	199
9.4	Mutual-defence clauses	201
9.5	Oaths to have the same enemies and friends: the Delian League oaths	205
9.6	“The Lacedaemonians and their allies” – the oaths of the Peloponnesian League.....	212
9.6.1	The origins of the Bündnissystem : “I will follow whithersoever the Spartans may lead”	216
9.6.2	Sparta and her allies between the Persian Wars and the Thirty Years’ Peace.....	222
9.6.3	Sparta and her allies finally defined – the Thirty Years’ Peace	228
9.6.4	The power of the “full” oath	231
9.7	Oaths between multiple equals.....	234
9.8	“Old” oaths of alliance	236
10	Oaths in peace treaties.....	241
10.1	Pouring the peace libations	242
10.2	The historical origins of sworn peace treaties	244
10.3	The first sworn peace treaties	247

10.4 The Thirty Years' Peace of 446/5: Sparta's fear of Athens or fear of the gods?	249
10.5 The Peace of Nicias (L.A. Kozak)	255
10.6 The King's Peace of 387/6: reconsidering Sparta's alleged violation of her oaths	266
10.7 The Peace of Philocrates: debunking Philip's reputation as a perjurer	280
11 Battlefield truces	291
11.1 Truces for collecting the dead – spondai peri nekrōn	291
11.2 Other sworn truces	302
12 Oaths and “the barbarian” (I.C. Torrance)	307
12.1 The Trojan War	308
12.2 Ritual and manipulation of language	310
12.3 Persians: politics, perjury, approbation	312
12.4 Conclusions	320
13 Conclusion: the efficacy of oaths	323
Bibliography	327
Index of names and topics	339
Index locorum	360