

CONTENTS

THE PROBLEM OF TRANSCENDENTAL ARGUMENTS AND THE SECOND CRITIQUE AS TEST CASE	1
1. Introduction	3
2. A Working Model for Transcendental Arguments	7
3. Criteria of a Successful Account of the Argument- Structure of the Analytic of the Second Critique	20
THE ARGUMENT OF THE ANALYTIC	27
4. Preliminary Outline of the Argument of the Analytic as a Whole	29
5. The Argument of Chapter 1	36
The Erklärung and its Remark	38
Sections 2—4	42
Sections 5—7	49
Section 8	53
The Deduction	55
6. The Argument of Chapter 2	68
Step 1: The Moral Good Must Be the Supreme Good	70
Step 2: The Moral Good Can Be the Supreme Good	76
7. The Argument of Chapter 3	87
The Division of the Chapter	90
The Moral Feeling	91
The Moral Interest	97
CONCLUSIONS	103
8. Conclusions and Discussion	105
The Second Critique	105
Transcendental Arguments	108
APPENDIXES	113
Appendix A: Beck's Account of the Argument	115
Appendix B: Silber's Account of the Argument	134
Appendix C: The Fact of Pure Practical Reason	145
Appendix D: Maxims and Laws	151
NOTES	165
BIBLIOGRAPHY	169