

Contents

Introduction	1
--------------	---

PART ONE – SECULARISM AND ITS DISCONTENTS

1	Has secularism failed?	11
2	Secularism, faith and freedom	23
3	Convictions, loyalties and the secular state	37
4	Law, power and peace	49
5	Europe, faith and culture	62
6	Religion, diversity and tolerance	75
7	The spiritual and the religious: is the territory changing?	85

PART TWO – LIVING WITHIN LIMITS: LIBERALISM, PLURALISM AND LAW

8	Multiculturalism – friend or foe?	99
9	Faith and Enlightenment	113
10	Pluralism – public and religious	126
11	Religious hatred and religious offence	136
12	Do human rights exist?	149
13	Reconnecting human rights and religious faith	160

PART THREE – LIVING WITH LIMITS: THE ENVIRONMENT

14	Changing the myths we live by	175
15	Renewing the face of the earth: human responsibility and the environment	185
16	Climate crisis: fashioning a Christian response	196

PART FOUR – HOUSEKEEPING: THE ECONOMIC CHALLENGE

17	Ethics, economics and global justice	211
18	Theology and economics: two different worlds	225

PART FIVE – JUSTICE IN COMMUNITY

19	Sustainable communities	235
20	The gifts reserved for age: perceptions of the elderly	243
21	Reforming punishment	252
22	Big society – small world?	265

PART SIX – RELIGIOUS DIVERSITY AND CIVIL AGREEMENT

23	Analysing atheism: unbelief and the world of faiths	281
24	Religious diversity and social unity	292
25	Faith communities in a civil society	302

PART SEVEN – REDISCOVERING RELIGION

26	Religious lives	313
	Acknowledgements	327
	Notes	331
	Index	339