

CONTENTS

| | |
|----------------------------------|------|
| List of Illustrations | vii |
| Preface | ix |
| Notes on Contributors | xi |
| Ken Haley: An Appreciation | xvii |
| Bob Moore | |

PART ONE

INTRODUCTION

| | |
|---|----|
| Britain, Belgium and the Netherlands and the Historical Imagination in the Nineteenth Century: An Introduction | 3 |
| Michael Wintle | |
| 1. From Waterloo Field to Bruges-la-Morte . Historical Imagination in the Nineteenth Century | 19 |
| Niek van Sas | |

PART TWO

THE SCOPE AND LANGUAGE OF NATIONAL HISTORY

| | |
|--|----|
| 2. A Very English Affair? Defining the Borders of Empire in Nineteenth-Century British Historiography | 45 |
| Andrew Mycock | |
| 3. Who is the Nation and What Does It Do? The Discursive Construction of the Nation in Belgian and Dutch National Histories of the Romantic Period | 67 |
| Marnix Beyen | |
| 4. The Colonies in Dutch National Museums for Art and History (1800–1885) | 87 |
| Ellinoor Bergvelt | |

PART THREE

HISTORICAL FICTION AND COLLECTIVE IDENTITY

5. 'Retro-Fitting the Past': Literary Historicism between the Golden Spurs and Waterloo 113
Joep Leerssen
6. The Victorians, the Dark Ages and English National Identity ... 133
Joanne Parker
7. 'A True Conception of History': 'Making the Past Part of the Present' in Late Victorian Historical Romances 151
Anna Vaninskaya

PART FOUR

THE PAST IMAGINED IN THE VISUAL ARTS

8. Picturing Patriotism: The Image of the Artist-Hero and the Belgian Nation State, 1830–1900 171
Jenny Graham
9. A Few Painters, A Few Heroes and Many Factory Workers: In Search of the Historical Culture of Belgian Immigrants in Northern France, 1850–1914 199
Tom Verschaffel and Saartje Vanden Borre
10. 'Retracing the History of our Country': National History Painting and Engraving in Britain and the Low Countries in the Nineteenth Century 219
Hugh Dunthorne
- General Bibliography 243
- Fifty Years of Anglo-Dutch Historical Conferences and Britain and the Netherlands Published Volumes, 1959–2012 259
- Index 263