

Table of Contents

Introduction	11
--------------------	----

PART I

1. What it means to be older: In search of a definition	17
1.1. Socio-Historical and Cultural Aspects of Age and Aging	17
1.2. Women and Concepts of Age and Aging	25
1.3. Spinsters Reloaded – Single Older Women in American Culture	29
2. Gender and Age Portrayals in American Culture	39
2.1. Portrayals of Older Persons and Age	40
2.2. Gender Portrayals and the Older Woman	44
3. Why Film? The Study of Film and (American) Cultural Studies	51

PART II

4. Methodology and Qualitative Cultural Analysis	59
5. Film Descriptions and Plot Synopses	63
6. Film Analysis: Roles and Themes	67
6.1. Family and Friends
Single Older Women as...
6.1.1. Sisters (in Law)	67
6.1.2. Mothers	80
6.1.3. Daughters	91
6.1.4. Aunts	96
6.1.5. Girlfriends	102

6.2. Romance, Sexuality, and Attractiveness of Single Older Women	121
6.2.1. On Intellectual, Emotional, and Physical Attractiveness ...	122
6.2.2. Romance and Sexuality of the Single Older Woman	135
6.3. The Older Woman in Mid-Life	162

PART III

7. Discussion	175
7.1. Intergenerational Harmony and the Affirmation of the Female	175
7.2. Single Women's Attractiveness and Sexuality meet Age	183
7.3. Single Older Women in Mid-Life	188
8. Popular Culture's Counter World of Single Women and Aging	193
9. Conclusion: Spinsters Reloaded and Relunched	199
10. Abstract	203
11. Works Cited	205
12. Films Cited	215