

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Prologue		15
	New approach to youth	16
	Sex and drugs before rock 'n' roll	17
	The phase of life recognized as 'Youth'	19
	Rites of passage	21
	Prodigal son	21
	Youth culture	23
	Holland – heart of the Republic	23
	Masculinity	25
	Before rock 'n' roll	30
Chapter 1	The Generation of the 1620s and 1630s	33
	Risk-taking behavior	36
	Marriage	38
	Amsterdam – a seventeenth-century boomtown	39
Chapter 2	Appearance and Clothing in the 1620s and 1630s	45
	Long hair	49
	Cavaliers	53
	Republic sans court culture	56
	Silk ribbons and metallic accessories	58
	Bright colors	61
	Calculated slovenliness	64
	Sumptuary rite of passage	67
	Extravagant clothing and the Prodigal Son	69
	Conclusion	71
Chapter 3	Drinking Like a Man	75
	Rite of passage	76
	Follies of youth	76
	Moral instruction	80

	Alcohol and young men from the upper and middle classes	82
	Honoring Bacchus	83
	Male bonding: cross social and economic drinking	90
	Alcohol and young men from the lower echelons	94
Chapter 4	Violence	101
	Violence – a rite of passage	103
	Collective socialization process	104
	Unequal partners	106
	Urban socialization process	109
	Violence and the lower ranks	110
	Rebelling against authority	114
	Violence and the upper and middle classes	116
	Loco parentis	118
	Armed young men	119
	Student violence – a rite of passage	123
	Shattering glass	124
	Nations	127
	Channelled violence	130
Chapter 5	Sexuality and Courting	141
	Sex education	142
	Sexual maturity	143
	Masturbation	147
	Sodomy	150
	Courting activities	151
	Courting events	153
	Courting space	155
	Premarital chastity	156
	Sexual deviance abroad	166
	Conclusion	168
Chapter 6	Drugs?	171
	Tobacco and the young	172
	Smoking – a burning debate	173
	Medical discourse	176
	Belladonna	179
	Conclusion	183

Chapter 7	Recreation before Rock 'n' Roll	187
	Youth literature	188
	War	190
	Adventure	192
	Love emblem books	192
	Song culture in the Republic	194
	Religious songbooks	195
	Secular songbooks	196
	Women and songbooks	196
	Song culture produced by and for the young	197
	Arcadian songbooks	201
	Boat trips	203
	Country rides	204
	Merrymaking at the beach	205
	Boundaries for the young	206
	Conclusion	211
Epilogue		215
	Masculine role models and a national identity?	218
	The dark passenger of male role models	223
Notes		225
Illustration Credits		269
Bibliography		273
Index		309