CHAPTER 1 Educational Psychology and Teacher Decision Making 1

- Case Study: More Than Meets the Eye 1
- Oops—A Pretest 2
- Drawing Conclusions from Psychological and Educational Research 4
  - Descriptive Studies 4
  - Correlational Studies 4
  - Experimental Studies 5
  - An Example: Research on Visual-Spatial Thinking 6
  - A Cautionary Note 7
- Using Principles and Theories in Classroom Decision Making 7
- Importance of Ongoing Assessment in Classroom Decision Making 8
- Developing as a Teacher 10
- Looking Ahead to the Following Chapters 11
- Studying Educational Psychology More Effectively 15
- The Big Picture 15
  - Importance of Research for Teachers • Principles, Theories, and Assessment in Decision Making • Developing as a Teacher • Reading About and Studying Educational Psychology

PART I

UNDERSTANDING STUDENT DEVELOPMENT AND DIVERSITY

CHAPTER 2 Cognitive and Linguistic Development 18

- Case Study: Economic Activities 19
- Basic Principles of Human Development 20
- Role of the Brain in Cognitive Development 22

- Piaget's Theory of Cognitive Development 23
  - Piaget's Basic Assumptions 23
  - Piaget's Stages of Cognitive Development 25
  - Current Perspectives on Piaget's Theory 32
- Vygotsky's Theory of Cognitive Development 36
  - Vygotsky's Basic Assumptions 36
  - Current Perspectives on Vygotsky's Theory 38
- An Information Processing View of Cognitive Development 42
  - Attention 42
  - Learning Strategies 43
  - Knowledge 45
  - Metacognition 46
- Linguistic Development 48
  - Theoretical Perspectives on Language Development 48
  - Trends in Language Development 49
  - Learning a Second Language 53
- Considering Diversity in Cognitive and Linguistic Development 55
  - Accommodating Students with Special Needs 55
- The Big Picture 57
  - Developmental Principles in the Classroom • Cognitive Development • Linguistic Development • Genetic Themes in Cognitive and Linguistic Development
- Case Study: In the Eye of the Beholder 58

CHAPTER 3 Personal, Social, and Moral Development 60

- Case Study: The Bad Apple 61
- Influence of Heredity and Environment on Personal, Social, and Moral Development 62
  - Temperamental Differences 62
  - Effects of Parenting 62
  - Effects of Culture 63
  - Peer Influences 64

Development of a Sense of Self	64
Factors Influencing the Development of Self-Views	66
Developmental Changes in Students' Self-Views	67
Social Development	73
Peer Relationships	73
Social Cognition	78
Fostering Social Skills	82
Promoting Social Interaction Among Diverse Groups	84
Moral and Prosocial Development	86
Development of Moral Reasoning: Kohlberg's Theory	87
Possible Gender Differences in Moral Reasoning: Gilligan's Theory	91
Emotional Components of Moral Development	92
Determinants of Moral Behaviors	92
Promoting Moral Development in the Classroom	93
Considering Diversity in Personal, Social, and Moral Development	96
Accommodating Students with Special Needs	96
The Big Picture	98
Personal Development • Social Development • Moral Development • Characteristics of Different Age-Groups • General Themes in Personal, Social, and Moral Development
Case Study: A Discussion of Runaway Slaves	100

CHAPTER 4 Individual and Group Differences 102

Case Study: Hidden Treasure	103
Keeping Individual and Group Differences in Perspective	104
Intelligence	105
Measuring Intelligence	106
How Theorists Conceptualize Intelligence	108
Heredity, Environment, and Group Differences	113
Being Optimistic About Students' Potential	114
Creativity	114
Fostering Creativity in the Classroom	115
Cultural and Ethnic Differences	118
Navigating Different Cultures at Home and at School	119
Examples of Ethnic Diversity	120
Creating a More Multicultural Classroom Environment	124
Gender Differences	128
Origins of Gender Differences	128
Socioeconomic Differences	131
Factors Interfering with School Success	132
Working with Homeless Students	133
Fostering Resilience	133
Building on Students' Strengths	134
Students at Risk	134
Characteristics of Students at Risk	134
Why Students Drop Out	135
Helping Students at Risk Stay in School	136
Taking Individual and Group Differences into Account	138
Accommodating Students with Special Needs	138
The Big Picture	139

Individual Differences • Group Differences • Students at Risk

Case Study: The Active and the Passive 141

CHAPTER 5 Students with Special Educational Needs 142

Case Study: Four Students	143
Educating Students with Special Needs in General Education Classrooms	144
Historical Overview of the Inclusion Movement	144
Public Law 94-142: The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)	145
Is Inclusion in the Best Interest of Students?	147
The Current Conception of Inclusion	149
General Categories of Students with Special Needs	150
Using People-First Language	151
An Overall Organizational Scheme	151
Students with Specific Cognitive or Academic Difficulties	152
Learning Disabilities	153
Attention-Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD)	156
Speech and Communication Disorders	158
General Recommendations for Students with Specific Cognitive or Academic Difficulties	159
Students with Social or Behavioral Problems	160
Emotional and Behavioral Disorders	160
Autism	163
General Recommendations for Students with Social or Behavioral Problems	164
Students with General Delays in Cognitive and Social Functioning	166
Mental Retardation	166
Students with Physical and Sensory Challenges	169
Physical and Health Impairments	169
Visual Impairments	171
Hearing Loss	172
Severe and Multiple Disabilities	173
General Recommendations for Students with Physical and Sensory Challenges	174
Students with Advanced Cognitive Development	177
Giftedness	177
Considering Diversity When Identifying and Addressing Special Needs	180
The Big Picture	181
Inclusion • Categories of Students with Special Needs • Strategies for Helping All Students with Special Needs
