

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Abbreviations xi

- Introduction. Postwar Czechoslovakia: The Master Key to Europe? 3
1. Resurrecting Czechoslovakia from Its Munich Grave 17
 2. General Eisenhower Declines to Liberate Prague 32
 3. Spring 1945: The Americans Return to the Schönborn Palace 55
 4. Ambassador Steinhardt's Delayed Arrival 67
 5. A Chronicle of Wasted Opportunities 81
 6. Steinhardt Encounters Reality: Nationalization, Expulsions, and U.S. Military Withdrawal 95
 7. America's Warning Signs: From the Štěchovice Raid to the May 1946 Elections 112
 8. Great Expectations and Lost Illusions: U.S. Intelligence in Postwar Prague 142
 9. Passing the Point of No Return: Prague Withdraws from the Marshall Plan 162
 10. The Communists Exchange Popularity for Absolute Power 183
 11. The Schönborn Palace under Siege: Americans as "Spies and Saboteurs" 203

Notes 233

Sources 271

Index 273