

Contents

Introduction: Towards a Theory of Human Secrecy and Unfathomability, or Exposing Elusive Forms of Evil	1
1. From the Devil to Frighteningly Normal and Sane People	17
2. The Crisis of Politics and the Search for a Language of Sensitivity	50
3. Between Fear and Indifference: The Loss of Sensitivity	94
4. Consuming University: The New Sense of Meaninglessness and the Loss of Criteria	131
5. Rethinking The Decline of the West	168