

Contents

Introduction	1
1 The Breakup: The Soviet Oil Industry Disintegrates	30
2 Riding Chaos: The Battle for Ownership, Money, and Power	63
3 The Birth of the Russian Majors: LUKoil, Surgutneftegaz, and Yukos	98
4 Worlds in Collision: The Foreigners Arrive in Russia	145
5 The Russian “Oil Miracle”: 1999–2004	185
6 The Brothers from Saint Petersburg: The Origins of Putin’s State Capitalism	231
7 “Chudo” Meets “Russian Bear”: The Yukos Affair	272
8 Russia’s Accidental Oil Champion: The Rise of Rosneft	319
9 Krizis : The Rude Awakening of 2008–2009 and the Russian Oil-Tax Dilemma	359
10 Strong Thumbs, Weak Fingers: How the State Regulates the Oil Industry	382
11 The Half-Raised Curtain: The Foreign Companies as Agents of Change	411
12 Three Colors of Oil: The Coming Crisis of Oil Rents	449
13 Looking Ahead: Oil and the Future of Russia; Russia and the Future of Oil	480
Notes	503
Bibliography	615
Acknowledgments	637
Index	641