

Contents

Uwe Klawitter / Claus-Ulrich Viol: Introduction. Political Poetry as a Space for Conflict and Negotiation	7
Christian Schmitt-Kilb: "Poetry's a Line of Defence". Ecopoetry and Politics in the 21st Century	25
Anette Pankratz: "Rat-Catchers" or What? British Poets Laureate in the 20th and 21st Centuries	49
Scott Brewster: The Other Side. Proximity, Poetry and the Northern Irish Peace Process	73
Peter Robinson: Conflicts in Form. The Politics of Roy Fisher's City	95
Cécile Marshall: Political and Poetic Defiance in Tony Harrison	117
Michael Szczekalla: Glyn Maxwell. The Poet as a Citizen	137
Uwe Klawitter: 'Doing Gender'. Poetic Configurations of Femininity and Masculinity	157
Gerold Sedlmayr: "I didn't graduate / I immigrate". West Indian British Poets and the Politics of Ethnicity	181
Cornelia Gräbner: Poetic Licence and Direct Address. Political Performance Poetry in Britain	205

Kathy-Ann Tan: London Calling. The Poetics of Disruption and Social Resistance in the Works of Sean Bonney and Stephen Mooney	229
Andy Croft in conversation with Uwe Klawitter / Claus-Ulrich Viol: "Dreadfully Old-Fashioned". On Tradition and Commitment in Political Poetry	255
Contributors' Addresses	273