

Contents

Abbreviations	9
Judeans, Jews, and their Neighbors: Jewish Identity in the Second Temple Period Daniel R. Schwartz	13
Conflicting Models of Identity and the Publication of the Torah in the Persian Period Thomas Römer	33
Joseph in Egypt: Living under Foreign Rule according to the Joseph Story and its Early Intra- and Extra-Biblical Reception Jakob Wöhrle	53
The Adversaries in Ezra/Nehemiah – Fictitious or Real? A Case Study in Creating Identity in Late Persian and Hellenistic Times Sebastian Grätz	73
“Genocide” in the Book of Esther: Cultural Integration and the Right of Resistance against Pogroms Reinhard Achenbach	89
Are Foreign Rulers Allowed to Enter and Sacrifice in the Jerusalem Temple? Rainer Albertz	115
The Construction of Samari(t)an Identity from the Inside and from the Outside Stefan Schorch	135
Manifest Identity: From Ioudaios to Jew: Household Judaism as Anti-Hellenization in the Late Hasmonean Era Andrea M. Berlin	151

Honor and Humiliation as a Factor in Hasmonean Politics according to the Narrator of 1 Maccabees Doron Mendels	177
From the “Master of the Elephants” to the “Most Ungracious Wretch”: The Image of Foreign Commanders in the Second Book of Maccabees Johannes Schnocks	205
Seduced by the Enemy or Wise Strategy? The Presentation of Non-Violence and Accommodation with Foreign Powers in Ancient Jewish Literary Sources Catherine Hezser	221
The High Priests and Rome: Why Cooperation Failed Kai Trampedach	251
Index of Ancient Sources	267
Index of Authors	277