

Transnationalism and Contemporary Global History

CONTENTS

Introduction, 7

Matthew Hilton and Rana Mitter

Feeding the World: Connecting Europe and Asia, 1930–1945, 29

Sunil Amrith and Patricia Clavin

Imperialism, Transnationalism, and the Reconstruction of Post-war China:

UNRRA in China, 1944–7, 51

Rana Mitter

‘Auntie UNRRA’ at the Crossroads, 70

Jessica Reinisch

Popular Responses to the Atomic Bomb in China 1945–1955, 98

Henrietta Harrison

Ghosts of the Japanese Imperial Army: The ‘White Group’ (Baituan) and Early Post-war Sino-Japanese Relations, 117

Barak Kushner

Swaraj for Kenya, 1949–1965: The Ambiguities of Transnational Politics, 151

Margret Frenz

Women’s Rights in Cold War Europe: Disentangling Feminist Histories, 178

Celia Donert

Compromising with Consumerism in Socialist China: Transnational Flows and Internal Tensions in ‘Socialist Advertising’, 203

Karl Gerth

From Peace to the Panthers: PRC Engagement with African-American Transnational Networks, 1949–1979, 233

Matthew D. Johnson

From Diaspora to Third Worldism and the United Nations: India and the Politics of Decolonizing Africa, 258

Gerard McCann

List of Contributors, 281

Index, 283