
Contents

| | |
|---|----|
| 1. The Different Paths to Industrial Revolution: the Theory of Proto-industrialisation | 1 |
| Industrial Breakthrough in Sweden | 4 |
| Proto-industrialisation: Industry before Industrialisation? | 8 |
| Proto-industrialisation in Sweden? | 14 |
| 2. The Extent of Proto-industry in Scandinavia | 18 |
| Sweden | 18 |
| The Organisation of Proto-industries | 23 |
| Important Proto-industrial Areas | 25 |
| Dalarna | 28 |
| Proto-industries Outside the Three Main Areas | 32 |
| The Decline of Proto-industry | 37 |
| The Industrialisation of Proto-industry | 40 |
| Proto-industrialisation in the Other Nordic Countries | 43 |
| 3. Scythe-making in Hedemora | 51 |
| The Extent of Scythe Manufacture | 53 |
| Scythe-making and the Industrialisation of Dalarna | 55 |
| The Decline of Scythe-forging | 56 |
| The Causes of Decline | 57 |
| Scythe Manufacture and its Significance for Industrialisation | 61 |
| Scythe Manufacture and the Need for Skilled Workers in Southern Dalarna | 64 |
| 4. Proto-industrialisation in Mora: a Long Tradition | 68 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Proto-industry in Mora | 69 |
| Metalwork in Mora | 70 |
| Division of Labour and the 'Outworking' System | 72 |
| Population, Agriculture and Alternative Occupations | 74 |
| The Development of Factory-based Industry in Mora | 79 |
| From Proto-industry to Mechanical Engineering | 81 |
| Labour and Craftsmanship | 85 |
| 5. Eskilstuna: a Proto-industrial Town | 89 |
| Iron Manufacturing Along the Eskilstuna River | 91 |
| Eskilstuna Freetown, 1771 | 93 |
| Proto-industry in the Freetown | 95 |
| Mechanisation and the Transition to Factory-based Industry | 97 |
| Proto-industry's Contribution to Modern Industrialisation | 99 |
| Problems of Adjustment and the New Industrial Discipline | 105 |
| 6. The Swedish Engineering Industry at the End of the Nineteenth Century | 109 |
| An Engineering Workshop in Hedemora | 113 |
| Labour Recruitment | 114 |
| 7. Craft Skills and Mechanisation | 116 |
| Craftsmanship | 118 |
| The Foundry | 121 |
| Sheet-metal Working | 124 |
| Smiths | 129 |
| Machine Work and Filers | 131 |
| Conclusion | 135 |
| Bibliography | 138 |
| Index | 147 |