

Table of contents

CHAPTER 1

Introduction to phonological variation in French:

Illustrations from three continents

1

Randall Gess, Chantal Lyche and Trudel Meisenburg

Part I. Africa

CHAPTER 2

A phonological study of French spoken by multilingual speakers from Bangui, the capital of the Central African Republic

23

Guri Bordal

CHAPTER 3

French in Senegal after three centuries: A phonological study of Wolof speakers' French

45

Béatrice Akissi Boutin, Randall Gess and Gabriel Marie Guèye

CHAPTER 4

The phonological characteristics of French in Bamako, Mali: A sociolinguistic approach

73

Chantal Lyche and Ingse Skattum

Part II. Europe

CHAPTER 5

An overview of the phonological and phonetic properties of Southern French: Data from two Marseille surveys

105

Annelise Coquillon and Gabor Turcsan

CHAPTER 6

- The variation of pronunciation in Belgian French:
From segmental phonology to prosody 129
Philippe Hambye and Anne Catherine Simon

CHAPTER 7

- A study of young Parisian speech: Some trends in pronunciation 151
Anita Berit Hansen

CHAPTER 8

- A phonological study of a Swiss French variety:
Data from the canton of Neuchâtel 173
Isabelle Racine and Helene N. Andreassen

Part III. North America

CHAPTER 9

- An overview of the phonetics and phonology of Acadian French spoken in northeastern New Brunswick (Canada) 211
Wladyslaw Cichocki

CHAPTER 10

- Laurentian French (Quebec): Extra vowels, missing schwas and surprising liaison consonants 235
Marie-Hélène Côté

CHAPTER 11

- “Cajun” French in a non-Acadian community: A phonological study of the French of Ville Platte, Louisiana 275
Thomas A. Klingler and Chantal Lyche

CHAPTER 12

- Laurentian French phonology in a majority setting outside Québec:
Observations from the PFC Hearst Ontario Study 313
Jeff Tennant

CHAPTER 13

Albertan French phonology: French in an anglophone context 341

Douglas C. Walker

CHAPTER 14

Phonological variation in French: Unity and diversity across continents 369

Chantal Lyche, Trudel Meisenburg and Randall Gess

INDICES

Varieties and geographical names 389

Subjects and key notions 393