

Contents

Preface and acknowledgements	iv
Introduction	vii
Modern approaches to the Seleukids and their world.....	vii
A methodological approach to Seleukid religion.....	viii
1. A Macedonian hegemony	1
1.1 A geographic outline of Hellenistic Syria.....	1
1.2 The historical narrative	2
From Issos to Ipsos (333-301 BC).....	2
The early Seleukid period (301-175 BC)	5
The late Seleukid I period (175-121 BC)	8
The late Seleukid II period (121-64 BC).....	11
A Seleukid epilogue – Kommagene	13
1.3 Questions of ethnicity in the Hellenistic East	15
The ‘ethnicity’ of the royal house.....	17
Ethnic composition of the Seleukid army.....	19
Ethnicity and the archaeological record	21
1.4 Reflections on a Macedonian hegemony	22
2. State patronage of religion	25
2.1 Divine patronage.....	25
The early Seleukid period (312-175 BC)	25
The late Seleukid I period (175-121 BC)	29
Egyptian imports	30
Ancient Luwians.....	32
Syncretised Semites.....	33
The ‘royal archer’ and Apollo in the East	37
The late Seleukid II period (121-64 BC).....	41
2.2 The impact of numismatic iconography	44
2.3 Reflections on divine patronage	47
3. Divine kings	49
3.1 Royal cult and Hellenistic kingshi	49
3.2 Official titulature	52
3.3 The trappings of divinity	55
Bull’s horns	55
Goat-horned helmet.....	59
The winged diadem	60
Radiate crowns and the Hieròs Gámos	60
Queens as goddesses	64
The king as goddess?.....	67
Wreaths.....	68
Lion- and elephant-scalp headdresses	68
3.4 Reflections on the royal cult	69
4. Sacred spaces – North Syria	71
4.1 The ‘Charonion’ at Antioch.....	71
4.2 The Doric temple at Seleukeia-Pieria	73
4.3 Holy Heavenly Zeus of Baitokaike.....	77
The main temenos	77
The Seleukid inscription.....	80
The north complex.....	80
4.4 Jebel Khalid Area B.....	81
The temple.....	81
The temenos	82
Statuary.....	86
Temple staff.....	89
4.5 Hierapolis-Bambyke	90
The sanctuary	91

The temple.....	91
Cult statues and honorary dedications.....	93
Sacred pools and holy fish.....	95
Ceremonies.....	99
Daily rituals.....	101
Water festivals.....	101
The fire-festival.....	103
4.6 Reflections on North Syria.....	103
5. Sacred spaces – Phoenicia and Koile-Syria.....	107
5.1 Umm el-Amed.....	107
The sanctuary of Milk’ashtart.....	107
The east sanctuary.....	110
5.2 Seleukid cult at Damascus.....	113
5.3 The Mount Hermon Panion.....	117
5.4 Gadara.....	120
The temple.....	120
The temenos.....	122
5.5 Gerasa.....	125
A Seleukid Zeus sanctuary?.....	126
Temple C.....	132
The Lagynophoria	134
Birketein.....	135
5.6 Tel Beersheba.....	137
5.7 Reflections on Phoenicia and Koile-Syria.....	141
6. Cultic administration.....	143
6.1 Cult and the Seleukid administration.....	143
6.2 Sacrifice and sacred dining.....	145
Concluding thoughts.....	151
Appendix – Concordance of site names.....	153
Abbreviations.....	155
References.....	157