

Contents

Preface	vii
Chapter 1. Varieties of Multilevel Citizenship WILLEM MAAS	1
 Part I. Migrants and Migrations
Chapter 2. Denizen Enfranchisement and Flexible Citizenship: National Passports or Local Ballots? LUICY PEDROZA	25
Chapter 3. Attrition through Enforcement in the “Promiseland”: Overlapping Memberships and the Duties of Governments in Mexican America ROGERS M. SMITH	43
Chapter 4. Multilevel Citizenship in a Federal State: The Case of Noncitizens’ Rights in the United States JENN KINNEY AND ELIZABETH F. COHEN	70
 Part II. Empires and Indigeneity
Chapter 5. When Did Egyptians Stop Being Ottomans? An Imperial Citizenship Case Study WILL HANLEY	89
Chapter 6. The Su Bao Case and the Layers of Everyday Citizenship in China, 1894–1904 ELIZABETH DALE	110

Chapter 7. The International Indigenous Rights Discourse and Its Demands for Multilevel Citizenship SHERYL LIGHTFOOT	127
Part III. Local, Multinational, and Postnational
Chapter 8. Local Citizenship Politics in Switzerland: Between National Justice and Municipal Particularities MARC HELBLING	149
Chapter 9. Multilevel Citizenship and the Contested Statehood of Bosnia and Herzegovina ELDAR SARAJLIĆ	168
Chapter 10. Citizens of a New Agora: Postnational Citizenship and International Economic Institutions TÜRKÜLER ISIKSEL	184
Chapter 11. Sites of Citizenship, Politics of Scales CATHERINE NEVEU	203
List of Contributors	213
Notes	215
Index	275