
CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Introduction	1

THE RISE OF A CONSTITUTIONAL MODEL OF JUSTICE, 1839-1920

1 Mustafa Ali: Ottoman Justice and Bureaucratic Reform	13
2 Tanyus Shahin of Mount Lebanon: Peasant Republic and Christian Rights	37
3 Ahmad Urabi and Nazem al-Islam Kermani: Constitutional Justice in Egypt and Iran	61

MOVEMENTS FOR LOCAL AND COLLECTIVE MODELS OF JUSTICE, 1920-1965

4 Halide Edib, Turkey's Joan of Arc: The Fate of Liberalism after World War I	91
5 David Ben-Gurion and Musa Kazim in Palestine: Genocide and Justice for the Nation	117
6 Hasan al-Banna of Egypt: The Muslim Brotherhood's Pursuit of Islamic Justice	150
7 Comrade Fahd: The Mass Appeal of Communism in Iraq	177

- 8 Akram al-Hourani and the Baath Party in Syria:
Bringing Peasants into Politics 207

STRUGGLES FOR JUSTICE IN THE ABSENCE OF A POLITICAL ARENA, SINCE 1965

- 9 Abu Iyad: The Palestinian Liberation Organization
and the Turn to Political Violence 239
- 10 Sayyid Qutb and Ali Shariati: The Idea of Islamic Revolution in Egypt and Iran 275
- 11 Wael Ghonim of Egypt: The Arab Spring and the Return of Universal Rights 309
- Chronology 337
- Notes 341
- Further Reading 394
- Index 402