

Table of Contents

Introduction	7
The Point of Departure	7
The State of Research	14
Yokohama shashin Terminology	19
The Research Background	20
The Precarious Issue of Attribution	20
Plan of the Book	21
1 Contextualising the “Kimbei” Brand	23
The Introduction of Photographic Media in Japan	23
The Rise and Falls of the Souvenir Photography Industry in Yokohama	26
The Kimbei Photography Studio	37
Shopping at the Kimbei Studio: Modalities of Selection	52
Image Authorship	56
Transforming Images: Kimbei Studio’s Costume Image	58
The Phenomenology of Viewing	63
2 Acting Before the Camera: Inquiring Photo Models	65
Contemporary Discourses on Geisha	68
Female Models in Japanese Souvenir Photography	81
“Photographic Truth”: Visual Modernity and Souvenir Images of Meiji Femininity	89
3 Between Commercialism and Ideology	93
Gender (Im)balances and Multivalent Genealogies	93
The Marketing of “Japaneseness”	101
Crossing Paradigms: Orientalism and Commercialism	109
Performing Female Virtues	120
The Domain of Femininity, The Feminised Self	130

4	Female Visibility in the Age of Photography	132
	The Meiji Concept of Photographic Mediality	132
	The “Photography-Fad” in Japan	135
	Coming to Terms with Photographic Media	136
	The Visual Display of Women in Meiji Japan	139
	Kurōto Women	141
	The Legacy on Female Exhibitionism	144
	Geisha on Display	147
5	Which Femininity? Whose Desire?	153

Appendices

1	Export volume of photographs (shashin-ga 写真画)	157
2	List of offices of foreign operations located in Honchō-dōri Street in Yokohama as of 1889	158
3	List of offices of foreign operations located in Honchō-dōri Street in Yokohama as of 1891	159
4	Overview of meta subject categories in Kimbei sales catalogue	160
5	A short listing of number of images found in Kimbei stamped albums	161
6	Distribution of images in Kimbei stamped albums	162
7	List of replaced images in Kimbei’s portfolio	164
8	Distribution of subjects listed in Kimbei’s sales catalogue	165
9	Number of Kimbei costume photographs: divided according to whether showing male or female models	166
10	Percentage of images featuring female models in Kimbei photographs according to subject categories	167
	Works Cited	169
	Acknowledgements	199
	Illustration Credits	201
	Colour Plates	207