

Inhalt

Vorwort .....	7
Marion Dönhoff
Ernst Kantorowicz .....	11
Robert E. Lerner
“Meritorious Academic Service”: Kantorowicz and Frankfurt .....	14
Otto Gerhard Oexle
German Malaise of Modernity: Ernst H. Kantorowicz and his “Kaiser Friedrich der Zweite” .....	33
Eckhart Grünewald
“Übt an uns mord und reicher blüht was blüht!” .....	57
Ernst Kantorowicz
Das Geheime Deutschland .....	77
Hans Belting
Images in History and Images of History .....	94
Robert E. Lerner
Kantorowicz and Continuity .....	104
David Abulafia
Kantorowicz, Frederick II and England .....	124
Peter Schöttler
Ernst Kantorowicz in Frankreich.....	144
Eckhart Grünewald
“Not Only in Learned Circles”: The Reception of Frederick the     Second in Germany before the Second World War .....	162
Johannes Fried
Ernst H. Kantorowicz and postwar historiography. German and European perspectives .....	180

Robert L. Benson
Kantorowicz on Continuity and Change in the History of Medieval Rulership .....	202
Carl Landauer
The King's Two Bodies and Kantorowicz's Constitutional Narrative .....	211
Ralph E. Giesey
The Two Bodies of the French King .....	224
Charles Davis
Kantorowicz and Dante .....	240
Jean-Philippe Genet
Kantorowicz and the King's Two Bodies : A non Contextual History .....	265
Ihor Ševčenko
Ernst H. Kantorowicz (1895–1963) on Late Antiquity and Byzantium ...	274
Personenregister .....	289