

Contents

Chapter I: Introduction

|  |    |
|--|----|
| 1. Status Quaestionis .....                               | 25 |
| 2. The Reading of the Carmen Christi in a New Light ..... | 27 |
| 3. Outline of Analysis.....                                      | 31 |
| 4. Concluding Remarks .....                                      | 33 |

Chapter II: Reading Ancient Texts through Social Identity Theory

|   |    |
|---|----|
| 1. Description of the Task .....                                | 35 |
| 2. Social Identity Theory: Description .....                    | 36 |
| 2.1 Defining Identity .....                                     | 42 |
| 2.2 Identity: Born or Made?.....                                | 44 |
| 3. Potential Limitations of the Chosen Approach.....            | 46 |
| 3.1. Modern Theories Applied to Ancient Texts .....             | 46 |
| 3.2 Lack of (Ancient) Evidence .....                            | 49 |
| 3.3 History vs Sociology .....                                  | 50 |
| 4. Identity in the First-Century Mediterranean World.....       | 52 |
| 4.1 Identity for Paul .....                                     | 52 |
| 4.2 Social Identity Theory and the Mediterranean World.....     | 54 |
| 5. Group-Identity Formation in Philippi.....                    | 60 |
| 5.1 Identity and Ethnicity .....                                | 61 |
| 5.2 The Source of Social Identity according to Philippians..... | 63 |

Chapter III: The Larger Context: First-Century Mediterranean Society through the Social Sciences

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 1. Introduction .....                                 | 67  |
| 2. Reading Ancient Texts .....                        | 69  |
| 2.1 Emic-Etic .....                                   | 70  |
| 2.2 Reading Perspective .....                         | 74  |
| 2.2.1 Social Scripts .....                            | 75  |
| 2.2.2 High and Low Context Societies .....            | 76  |
| 3. Curse and Blessing of ‘Modelling’ .....            | 77  |
| 3.1 Advantages of Being Explicit .....                | 79  |
| 3.2 Heuristic or Prediction Tool? .....               | 79  |
| 3.3 The Problem of ‘Fixed’ or Inflexible Models ..... | 81  |
| 3.4 One Model vs Many Models? .....                   | 81  |
| 4. The Context: The Pre-Industrial Society .....      | 83  |
| 4.1 Characteristics .....                             | 83  |
| 4.1.1 Hierarchical .....                              | 84  |
| 4.1.2 Wide Gap between Rural and Urban Settings ..... | 85  |
| 4.1.3 Division of Labour .....                        | 86  |
| 4.1.4 Strong Group-Based Character .....              | 86  |
| 4.2 Structures .....                                  | 87  |
| 5. First-Century Circum-Mediterranean Region .....    | 88  |
| 5.1 First-Century Mediterranean Values? .....         | 89  |
| 5.2 ‘Pivotal’ Values Re-Examined .....                | 90  |
| 5.2.1 Honour and Shame .....                          | 91  |
| 5.2.2 Limited Good Perception .....                   | 98  |
| 5.2.3 Kinship .....                                   | 106 |
| 5.3 The Person in This Context .....                  | 106 |
| 5.3.1 Dyadic Personality .....                        | 107 |
| 5.3.2 Agonistic Experience .....                      | 110 |
| 5.3.3 Patronage .....                                 | 113 |

|                      |     |
|----------------------|-----|
| 6. Conclusions ..... | 115 |
|----------------------|-----|

Chapter IV: The Roman Colony of Philippi

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. Introduction .....  | 119 |
| 2. The Roman Colony of Philippi.....   | 121 |
| 2.1 History, Archaeology. ....   | 121 |
| 2.2 Religion(s) .....  | 129 |
| 2.2.1 Literary, Religious Myths.....   | 132 |
| 2.2.2 The Imperial Cult .....  | 134 |
| 3. Rome's Mission to the World .....   | 140 |
| 3.1 An Empire of Honour .....  | 142 |
| 3.1.1 Granting of Privileges.....  | 143 |
| 3.1.2 Patron-Client Relations .....  | 145 |
| 3.2 Romanisation: Urbanitas , Humanitas and Romanitas ..... | 147 |
| 3.2.1 Romanisation towards the West .....  | 154 |
| 3.2.2 Romanisation towards the East.....   | 155 |
| 3.2.2.1 Conquest of the Admired .....  | 156 |
| 3.2.2.2 Changes in Property .....  | 157 |
| 3.2.2.3 Preliminary Conclusions.....   | 160 |
| 3.3 Identity in the Graeco-Roman Context .....                                   | 161 |
| 3.3.1 Philippi as Colony.....  | 163 |
| 3.3.2 Living in the Colony .....   | 164 |
| 3.3.2.1 Day to Day Living .....  | 165 |
| 3.3.2.2 Voluntary Associations .....   | 166 |
| 3.3.2.3 Roman Citizenship.....   | 166 |
| 4. Paul's Experience in Philippi.....  | 168 |
| 4.1 Paul's Visits to Philippi .....  | 168 |
| 4.2 Acts: A Reliable Historical Source?.....                                     | 171 |
| 4.3 The Incident at Philippi as Test Case .....                                  | 174 |
| 4.3.1 Setting up the Scene .....   | 174 |

|       |                   |     |
|-------|-------------------|-----|
| 4.3.2 | The Charges.....  | 176 |
| 4.3.3 | What Then? .....  | 181 |
| 5.    | Conclusions ..... | 183 |

Chapter V: Paul: A Man under Constraint

|           |   |     |
|-----------|---|-----|
| 1.        | Introduction .....  | 185 |
| 2.        | Paul through Many Lenses.....                                       | 186 |
| 2.1       | Paul according to Himself .....                                     | 186 |
| 2.1.1     | A δοῦλος of Christ Jesus (Phil. 1.1) .....                          | 187 |
| 2.1.1.1   | Slavery in Greece and Rome.....                                     | 189 |
| 2.1.1.1.1 | Sources of Slavery.....   | 190 |
| 2.1.1.1.2 | Justification of Slavery .....                                      | 192 |
| 2.1.1.2   | The Slave's Status .....  | 194 |
| 2.1.1.3   | Slavery as Social Death .....                                       | 197 |
| 2.1.2     | Slavery Redefined: A Model of Discipleship .....                    | 199 |
| 2.2       | Luke's Portrait of Paul: The Roman Citizen .....                    | 205 |
| 3.        | Suffering in Paul: A Theology of Discipleship.....                  | 208 |
| 3.1       | Prisoner for Christ's Sake (Phil. 1.13) .....                       | 212 |
| 3.1.1     | Incarceration and Shame .....                                       | 213 |
| 3.1.2     | Incarceration and Paul's View of Discipleship.....                  | 215 |
| 3.2       | Abased but Content (Phil. 4.11–12) .....                            | 218 |
| 3.3       | Apostolate and Suffering .....                                      | 219 |
| 3.4       | The Persecutor Persecuted .....                                     | 219 |
| 4.        | Leadership in Paul's Style: Imitatio , Control or Both?..... | 222 |
| 4.1       | Power Relations .....   | 222 |
| 4.2       | A δοῦλος in Command? .....  | 223 |
| 4.2.1     | Imitatio Pauli and/or Imitatio Christi ? .....        | 224 |
| 4.2.2     | Living the Cruciform Life .....                                     | 230 |
| 5.        | Conclusions .....   | 231 |

Chapter VI: Corresponding with the Communities

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. Paul: The Letter-Writer Apostle .....   | 233 |
| 1.1 A New Way of Being in Touch .....  | 234 |
| 1.2 How to Understand Written Correspondence in Antiquity .....                          | 235 |
| 1.2.1 Written Letters to Be Read Aloud .....   | 236 |
| 1.2.1.1 Oral/Aural Elements .....  | 236 |
| 1.2.1.2 The Role of the Emissaries .....   | 238 |
| 1.2.2 Letters Addressing Ad Hoc Situations .....                                  | 239 |
| 1.2.2.1 Ad Hoc but Universal also .....   | 240 |
| 1.2.2.2 Not Thorough but to the Point .....  | 241 |
| 1.2.2.3 Danger of ‘Mirror-Reading’ .....   | 243 |
| 2. Philippians through a Socio-Rhetorical Approach .....                                 | 244 |
| 2.1 Provenance .....   | 247 |
| 2.2 The Importance of the Social Location for SIT .....                                  | 249 |
| 2.3 Is It All in the Style? (Letter-Forms) .....   | 251 |
| 2.3.1 A Friendly Letter .....  | 253 |
| 2.3.2 A Unified Letter .....   | 257 |
| 2.4 Structure of the Letter to the Philippians .....                                     | 259 |
| 3. Recipients: the Crux of Generalisation in the Umwelt of the Roman Empire ..... | 262 |
| 3.1 The Christian Community at Philippi (the Ingroup) .....                              | 263 |
| 3.1.1 Demographic Figures .....  | 263 |
| 3.1.2 Prosopographic Description .....   | 264 |
| 3.1.3 Conclusions Concerning the Recipients .....  | 265 |
| 3.2 Adversaries: the Many Faces of the Outgroup .....                                    | 266 |
| 3.2.1 Envious and Rival Preachers (1.15) .....   | 267 |
| 3.2.2 Political Adversaries (1.28) .....   | 269 |
| 3.2.3 Enemies of the Cross (3.2, 18–19) .....  | 271 |
| 3.2.4 Concluding Remarks on the Adversaries .....  | 275 |
| 4. Philippians Aimed at Identity Formation .....   | 278 |
| 4.1 Paul’s Purpose(s) .....  | 278 |

|  |   |     |
|--|---|-----|
| 4.2  | The Centrality of Christ as Identity Model .....            | 283 |
| 5.   | Conclusions .....   | 285 |
|  |   |     |
| Chapter VII: The Source of Identity: The So-Called Christ-Hymn |   |     |
| 1.   | Introduction .....  | 287 |
| 2.   | A Closer Look at 2.[5]6–11 .....                            | 288 |
| 2.1  | The Question of Genre .....                                 | 288 |
| 2.2  | Philippians 2.6–11 in Its Present Context .....             | 293 |
| 2.3  | Divisions/Movements.....                                    | 297 |
| 2.3.1  | First Act: Christ’s High Existence (2.6) .....              | 299 |
| 2.3.2  | Second Act: Christ’s Humiliation (2.7–8) .....              | 304 |
| 2.3.3  | Third Act: Christ’s Exaltation (2.9–11) .....               | 311 |
| 2.4  | The Christ-Hymn and Its Literary Sitz im Leben ..... | 316 |
| 2.4.1  | Phil 2.6–11 and the Literature of that Time .....           | 317 |
| 2.4.1.1  | The Hymn to Augustus .....                                  | 319 |
| 2.4.1.2  | Christ’s Lordship vs Caesar’s Empire .....                  | 321 |
| 2.4.2  | Christ and Religious Myths .....                            | 324 |
| 3.   | The Function of Philippians 2.5–11 .....                    | 329 |
| 4.   | The Christ-Hymn: Alternative Living in the City .....       | 341 |
| 5.   | Conclusions .....   | 344 |
|  |   |     |
|  | Bibliography .....  | 349 |
|  | Index.....  | 385 |