

Table of Contents

Preface .....	V
Reading indications .....	XI
Chapter 1: Paul after Paul: A (Hi)story of Reception .....	1
1. The Paul of the epistles and the Paul of Acts: between incompatibility and harmonization .....	2
2. A typology of the reception of Paul .....	4
3. A differentiated reception of Paul .....	10
4. Conclusion .....	21
Chapter 2: The Image of Paul in Acts .....	22
Introduction: between proximity and distance .....	23
First part (methodological): necessary mediations .....	27
1.1 Letting go of the historical positivism illusion .....	27
1.2 Letting go of the eyewitness mirage .....	29
1.3 Letting go of the short-sightedness of anachronism .....	30
Second part (following the narrative): Paul's image .....	33
2.1 The Damascus road (Acts 9, 22, 26): between roots and rupture .....	33
2.2 Pisidian Antioch (Acts 13) and Athens (Acts 17): the God of each and all .....	37
2.3 Ephesus (Acts 19) and the farewell (Acts 20): Christianity, location of the Word .....	41
2.4 Rome (Acts 28): the home, a place for the Church .....	44
Conclusion: Paul, an identifying figure .....	46
Chapter 3: Paul and the Torah in Acts .....	48
1. The issues .....	48
2. The "Law" vocabulary .....	50
3. Justification outside the Law .....	51
4. A "reasonable" Law .....	55
5. Respecting the customs, a question of identity .....	61
6. Conclusion .....	65

Chapter 4: Paul as Socratic Figure in Acts .....	66
1. Paul in Ephesus (19:9–10) .....	66
2. Paul in Lystra (14:8–18) .....	69
3. Paul in Athens (17:16–34) .....	70
4. The status of the Torah .....	74
5. Conclusion .....	77
 Chapter 5: The Resurrection and its Witnesses in the Book of Acts .....	 78
1. Testifying to the resurrection is to read history theologically .....	80
2. Testifying to the resurrection is to announce the restoration of human beings .....	82
3. Testifying to the resurrection is to unfold the universality of salvation .....	86
4. When life becomes a testimony to the resurrection .....	88
 Chapter 6: Luke and the Casting of Characters .....	 92
Introduction: what Christian memory has retained .....	92
1. Luke, designer of characters .....	93
2. The Lukan character, a plot in a nutshell .....	97
3. Conclusion: the agent in the story .....	105
 Chapter 7: From Temple to Home according to Luke-Acts .....	 106
1. The language of the Temple and of the home .....	106
2. The ambivalent figure of the Temple .....	113
3. The home, scene of the reconstitution of Christian identity .....	125
4. Conclusion: from Temple to home .....	128
 Chapter 8: Writing Acts: The Resurrection at Work in History .....	 130
1. An apologetic interest: Jesus' resurrection has become part of history .....	132
2. Hermeneutic function: the resurrection enables the construction of the Christian vision of salvation history .....	134
3. Soteriological effect: salvation is the actualization of the resurrection in history .....	139
4. An indicator of continuity and of rupture between Israel and the Church ...	143
5. Conclusion .....	147
 Chapter 9: Meals in Acts .....	 148
1. A community ethics (Acts 2:42–47) .....	149
2. Breaking the bread .....	154

3. Eating with Jesus in the Gospel of Luke .....	156
4. The meals of Acts .....	157
5. Conclusion .....	161
 Chapter 10: Paul the Mystic .....	 162
1. Mysticism in Pauline literature .....	165
2. Defining mysticism .....	167
3. Paul and the mystic experience .....	168
4. A Christic mysticism .....	175
5. Conclusion .....	177
 Chapter 11: The Pauline Gospel of Justification of Faith .....	 179
Introduction: Justification in Paul's theology .....	179
1. The curse of the Law (Gal 3:10–14) .....	184
2. A Pharisaic pedigree thrown as a garbage (Phil 3:4–11) .....	192
3. Justification by faith, a principle of universality (Rom 3:21–31) .....	208
4. Justification by faith and Judgement of works .....	215
 Chapter 12: Imitating the Apostle, Father and Mother of the Community (1 Thess 2:1–12) .....	 220
1. Paul and the group of apostles .....	221
2. Thanksgiving and narration of self (1 Thess 1–3) .....	223
3. The rhetorical construction of 2:1–12 .....	226
4. Reading the text .....	229
5. What literary genre? .....	240
 Chapter 13: The Affair of Women's Veil in Corinth (1 Cor 11:2–16) .....	 244
1. What is the situation in Corinth? .....	244
2. The way Paul argues .....	247
3. The claims of Corinthian women .....	251
 First publications .....	 255
Bibliography (Modern authors) .....	259
Biblical Index .....	281