

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations	xi
Chapter One. Apocalypticism: Definitions, Connotations, and Models	1
1. The Sociological Model of Millenarianism	3
2. The Medievalist Approach	4
3. Apocalyptic Lenses	6
4. Apocalyptic Models	12
Chapter Two. “To Moralyze Aright:” The Established Apocalyptic Vision in Late Medieval England	19
1. The Archetypal Antichrist	19
2. The Historical Antichrist	22
3. The Popularization of the Historical Antichrist Tradition	29
4. The Established Antichrist Depiction and the Medieval Church	44
Chapter Three. Missing Links in English Apocalypticism: John Wyclif and the Lollards	48
1. The Origins of English Reformation Apocalypticism	51
2. Wyclif’s Eschatology	56
Chapter Four. For the Reformation of the Whole Church: the Opus Arduum	76
1. Prolegomena: The World in Schism	76
2. Historical Exegesis in the Opus Arduum	77
3. Competing Apocalyptic Visions: The Opus Arduum versus the Established Version	92
4. Degradation and Transformation: Canon Law and Evangelical Law	102
Chapter Five. The Dissemination of Lollard Apocalypticism	114
Chapter Six. Lollard Apocalypticists: Looking in from the Outside	144

Chapter Seven. The Legacy of Lollard Apocalypticism	177
1. Lollardy and Subversive, Late Medieval Apocalypticism	180
2. Lollard Apocalypticism and John Bale	190
Appendix A. The Entry “ Antichristus ” in the Floretum	196
Appendix B. The Entry “ Adventus ” in the Floretum	203
Bibliography	205
Indices
1. Index of Persons	223
2. Index of Subjects	228